

'Round the Riviera

By MARY WEBB
Fronter 5-3051

Dick and Pat Gawne, 260 Calle de Andalucía together with daughters Candy and Lisa, recently entertained relatives from the north country. They were Pat's mother and father from Portland, Ore., and they spent two and one-half weeks here in the Riviera. It was their first visit in a year and the first time they've seen new grand-daughter, Lisa.

The Cubs, the Scouts and the Explorers of Hollywood Riviera are all readying for a big gathering soon. Henry Miller says it's a family gathering to do honor to the first boy of this neighborhood to achieve Scout, Dandy's highest award, the Eagle Scout. Jim Muller, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Muller, 112 Via Alameda, holds this honor, having been awarded 21 merit badges and passed other necessary tests. Jim just passed his 14th birthday last August and has gained the Eagle Scout title at an early age. The get-together to award him will be in form of a family gathering, with Cub Packs 718C and 656C, Troop 718 of the Boy Scouts and Post 718X, the Explorers, all present to do him honor. Their families, too, will be present to witness the event. Miller reported he will announce the time and place for the affair as soon as negotiations are completed for a large enough hall to hold the Scouts, Cubs and Explorers and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Handy, 229 Paseo de Gracia, are entertaining.

The first general meeting of the Torrance Little League was held Thursday at the Torrance YMCA, with many Riverians in attendance. Little League officials from Santa Monica spoke before the 150 persons assembled, pointing out that the League is designed for small communities and cannot be commercialized but rather is entirely non-profit. In order to participate, officials said, Riverians must first call together a meeting of interested persons and elect officers. Each team is allowed five 12-year-olds, five 11-year-olds and five 10-year-olds. All parents must carry insurance on the boys participating. Officials pointed out that outside sponsors cover the cost of furnishing the boys' uniforms and other expenses through the season.

Douglas Moor, 249 Via La Ciruela, is temporary chairman of the Riviera Ball Club until regular officers and a chairman can be elected.

HAPPY BIRTHDAYS: Recent birthday celebrations were held at various homes throughout Riviera. They included Barry Bullington, 139 Calle de Andalucía, who celebrated his sixth birthday on Oct. 4; Jimmy Scott, 146 Calle de Andalucía, who lit five candles on his birthday cake on Oct. 6; David Harvey, who passed his sixth birthday on Sunday, Oct. 19, and Elizabeth Taylor, 130 Calle de Andalucía, who was seven years old on Oct. 15. All four children celebrated their days with parties, which their friends and neighbors attended.

Ellen and Warren Hayes, 237 Via Alameda, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brackett, 233 Via Alameda, recently. Bridge held the center of the evening's attention.

Did we say bride? Hilda and Fred Teetzel, 300 Via Colusa, hosted a bridge party for neighbors and friends last Friday evening. Present were Messrs. and Mesdames Emil Huestump, Bob Wermuth, Will Zens, George Schneider and Tony Baldwin. Keeping it in the family, Janice Zens walked off with women's first prize while Will Zens won the men's first prize.

The Community Chest drive is about to begin. Volunteer workers are needed. Here's your chance to do your good turn. Call Mrs. Howard Baldwin, 139 Paseo de Granada, FR. 5-3930. She's heading up the Riviera effort and needs your help.
