Shoestring Community Group Plans Box Social for Nov. 21

At an advisory board meeting of the Shoestring Community Assn. Monday evening, Councilman John S. Gibson outlined the proposal to install storm drains in the vicinity of Normandie Ave. and 223rd St. to drain the area between 223rd and 235th and Normandie Ave. and Western.

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Ben Rusk, 1319 W. 221st St., the board also was told that street lighting on 213th St. and on Torrance Blvd. through the strip would be started in the near future.

Meeting at the same time, the executive board of the community association completed plans for a box social to be held Friday night, Nov. 21, at the Normandie Recreation Center, 224th St. and Halldale Ave. The ladies are being asked to prepare box suppers which will be auctioned during the evening.

Drama Stated
Highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the old-time melodrama "Hounded by Hate," produced and directed by Doug and Jo McClay. The play was presented recently for the Torrance chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, and was well received. The play is replete with villains, heroes, blackguard bankers, and a virtuous maiden.

A Torrance quarter, The Colonels of Corn, will entertain and

Reflections

By J. HUGH SHERFEY, JR.

WHAT IS FREEDOM?

How would you answer that question? You think of Independence Hall, shake your head and conclude, that's only part of it. You look at an American flag; that's closer, an emblem of all our freedoms, but not specific enough. You smile as you see a booth in a polling place, the locked box where the secret ballots are placed. Yes, that is truly one of our "freedoms."

You glance at the lock on your door; isn't that "freedom from unauthorized search." Your job is "freedom of choice." This newspaper is "freedom of the press." The plain hand ring on your wife's finger is an emblem of "freedom of a sacred institution." The car you drive, your TV, radio, telephone, schools, flash across the screen of your mind; they are a few of our "freedoms." Chimes from a church tower ring clear and true. "There," you say, "is a freedom of thought."

You conclude, "freedom," isn't something you can model or describe any more than a human soul. "freedom" is a part of us, a way of life, a philosophy for which men died to preserve. Let's keep the "freedom" we know and love.
