

Mrs. Sanford to Three Torrance Students in El Camino Play

Mrs. Agnes Sanford, national leader in the field of prayer and spiritual therapy, will lecture and conduct a prayer service for healing at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Thursday, Nov. 20, at 10 a. m.

The daughter of medical missionaries, Mrs. Sanford was reared in China. She later married a minister of the Episcopal faith and came to the United States, where her husband has served for many years in pastorates on the east coast.

Following the lecture, Mrs. Sanford will be available for a limited number of private interviews. The services are open to the public.

Holy communion will precede Mrs. Sanford's talk.

Three Torrance Students have been assigned leading roles in the El Camino College fall play, "The Hasty Heart," a story of a convalescent ward in the rear of the Assam-Burma front.

Assigned the only feminine part was Donna Marie Latture of Torrance. She will be the English nurse, Margaret.

Roger Wright has been given the role of Kiwi, a New Zealander; and Wilson Paxton will play the part of an American orderly.

PERSONALS

"ORDERS ARE ORDERS"

Yes, I've been called to Washington D.C. and I have asked Dick Miller of Home Loan Realty to sell my 3-bedroom home in Walteria. This is a G.I. resale, that has many built-in features. The kitchen is the thing that is breaking my wife's heart; she has to leave her Servel refrigerator, West-ern Serval range, the Bendix auto-matic washer and the Waste-King garbage disposal. I can't begin to tell you about all of the features. Give Dick a call and let him show you our home. It is priced at $11,500. Down payment including appliances is only $2,788.00, monthly payments $59.50, includes taxes and insurance. Remember - call

TORRANCE 3434
