

Sierra Hare and Pheasant Hunting Seasons To Open

Saturday, Nov. 22, marks opening day for two species of California game, the fish and game department announced yesterday.

For the first time in 30 years, the Sierra hare, commonly called the snowshoe rabbit, will be legal gunfire targets, as a 40-day hunting season opens in Mono and Inyo Counties.

And the pheasant season gets under way in the area from Shasta to Fresno counties, with 15 cooperative hunting areas open to the public.

Bag limits are two birds per day and two rabbits daily, with hours between 8 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.

Turkey Shoot Postponed to This Sunday

Rifle and pistol shots interested in trying for the family's holiday turkey will have at it this Sunday, as last week's attempt aborted because of inclement weather.

Despite the downpour, a goodly crowd turned out at the range at 25651 Crenshaw Blvd., according to Rangemaster Harold Paul. He expressed thanks to the interested people and a hope they would return this Sabbath.

Ten gunners at a time will compete at 25 yards, with pistols at a poker deck; at 50 yards ofhand with rifles, and at 200 yards with the same type piece.

Shooting will begin at 8 a.m. and end about 5, when the last gunner has fired his last round. Entry fee is $1.
