GRAYCE RYCKMAN

Home for Thanksgiving and until about Dec. 15 is Donna Hatfield, corporal of the United States Marine Corps. Her home is at 5220 Vanderhill Rd. where her father, Howard Hatfield, her brother Don, and her grandfather, (grandpa to all of us) live. She arrived by plane on Monday, Nov. 24. She is to report back to Arlington, Va., by Dec. 20. To Donna, this coming Jan. 20 is about the biggest day of her life. She is to be in the big Inaugural Parade in Washington, D. C. a part of history in the making.

Away from the Heights for Thanksgiving was the Joe Wad-dingham (Ruth and Carolyn) family, 5389 Bindewald. They spent a wonderful, memorable, entirely different sort of holiday in Ensenada, Mexico. They returned home Sunday evening, loaded with purchases and stories of Mexico. Incidentally, Joe Waddingham lived in Ensenada when he was a child.

It is a full-house for Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Steele and children of 5003 Macatee. Esther's sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Osborne, and their three sons stayed with the Steele family for a week in November, while Dr. Osborne attended a medical convention. They returned to their home in San Jose, California the 20th. But on the 19th Mr. and Mrs. Roy Steele, mother and father of George, of Portland, Ore. arrived. They plan on staying through the Christmas holidays. Let's hope the rain holds off for a while so Mr. and Mrs. Roy Steele can enjoy sunny California.

Nov. 25 marked another year in the lives of two of our neighbors. One, Dolores Dwyer, who is now 11, and right across Bindewald from her, Esther Johnson, shall we say she is "over 21?"

Bob and Anita George of 8246 Bindewald, were highly commended last week for their help in apprehending a hit and run driver. They were on the highway in Hermosa Beach when a car passed between them and the cars parked at the curb. Entering one of these parked cars, from the street side, was William Egerter, 16, who was hit. Anita seeing this was amazed to find that the driver did not stop. Bob pursued him through Redondo, where he finally lost him in traffic, but before they obtained the license number, which they turned over to the police. It was this number that helped the Long Beach police take Harold Fowler into custody five hours later.

those demonstration parties. That certainly is a nice way to get the "girls" together for a while. There was Dee Callahan and her sweet baby, Vicki; Carmen Lane and Anna Mae Elmer well thought of neighbors on Bindewald; Nellie Taylor, the hard-working Sunday school teacher; Mrs. Clavel, who has been living with her son, Dan Clavel, at 5242 Bindewald; Katherine Macgure, who lives in Don and Annet Harrellson's house; Dorothy Ervin, who is so glad to be back in her own home at 5804 Bindewald; Ann Gaines, a newcomer whom I want to introduce later, and an artist friend of Atha Milson's, Katherine Means.

Incidentally, Mrs. Clavel just mentioned in the last news item, is going back to New York to live. Leaving on the same plane with her is Mrs. Katherine Macgure, but she is only going as far as Philadelphia. They are leaving Dec. 17 and Katherine will spend the holidays with her folks before she returns home. Bon voyage!

Mrs. Jack Milson of 5811 Bindewald Rd. had a nice gathering of neighbors at her home last Thursday afternoon for one of those demonstration parties. That certainly is a nice way to get the "girls" together for a while. There was Dee Callahan and her sweet baby, Vicki; Carmen Lane and Anna Mae Elmer well thought of neighbors on Bindewald; Nellie Taylor, the hard-working Sunday school teacher; Mrs. Clavel, who has been living with her son, Dan Clavel, at 5242 Bindewald; Katherine Macgure, who lives in Don and Annet Harrellson's house; Dorothy Ervin, who is so glad to be back in her own home at 5804 Bindewald; Ann Gaines, a newcomer whom I want to introduce later, and an artist friend of Atha Milson's, Katherine Means.

Scouting News: The "cook-out" that the Girl Scouts of Troop 1055 planned for last week, turned out to be a "cook-in" in Mrs. Helen English's kitchen. She is the intermediate leader. The reason for the change was naturally, the rain. But... fun... fun... fun.

The Cub Scout 726-C Pack met last Friday turned out very well, according to reports. Two boys became Scouts that evening: Richard Honzik and Wesley Rollins. There is a great need for new den mothers. Some boys are missing this grand opportunity because there is no one to help. Can you? Call Mr. Nauman, Frontier 5-1098.

Due to the growing population in our immediate neighborhood, more women are needed to help in any capacity in our Girl Scout program, too. I'm awfully proud and happy to say that I am now the neighborhood chairman for Seaside Girl Scouts. If you will help, just call me.

Fuchsia Society's
Gardena Branch
Fetes Tenth Year

A decade of gardening will pass in review at the next meeting of the Gardena branch of the California Fuchsia Society, scheduled for the Progressive Women's Club House, 16121 Orchard Ave., next Monday night. Newly installed officers, including Mrs. Alice Martin, president; Elston G. Peters, vice president; Mrs. Peggy Barton, secretary, and Joe Taylor, treasurer, will preside at their first session.

Committee chairman appointments announced include Mrs. Josephine Smith, Gardena; Mrs. Lillian Peters, Los Angeles; registrar, Mrs. Ruth Taylor, Redondo Beach; membership, Mrs. Amelia Burnett, Hawthorne; general assistant, Mrs. Elsa F. Stone, Torrance; publicity, and John Martin, Hawthorne, plants.

A gift exchange to celebrate the holiday season is planned. Mrs. Barton, first named as vice president, has been a regular attendant at the club meetings since its inception.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mear of 5140 Zakon Rd. just returned from a visit with his folks. They live in Hammond, Ind. Welcome home.

It is a great big congratulatory to Floyd and Merle Holstein, a little late, I agree, but not too late to tell that on last Nov. 17 these two well-known Heights folks celebrated their 17th wedding anniversary.

Another belated congratulatory message, this a Happy Birthday, to little Jackie Jurisich, who became four big years old on Nov. 15.

Recent visitors at 5004 Macatee Rd., the George Bibly family, have been the welcome company of George's nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crane. The nephew is now stationed in San Diego... Navy.

And at 5389 Bindewald, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shields had the pleasure of Joe's mother company for nearly a week.

Several, but several of the residents, here in the Heights, have been bitten by the flu bug and badly. The Slover girls, all three, mother Helen, and Susan and Nancy, were under a doctor's care last week. Now Helen is on a leave of absence from Taylor, Redondo Beach, membership; Mrs. Amelia Burnett, Hawthorne, general assistant; Mrs. Elsa F. Stone, Torrance, publicity, and John Martin, Hawthorne, plants.

Roland White of Zakon Rd., our fifth grade teacher at Seaside School, was out several days, much to his students' distress, with the flu.

Also, one of our fairly new neighbors, Mrs. Crews, of 5245
