

WSCS Bazaar Brightens Methodist Church Today

Beginning at 11 o'clock this morning, bazaar will be in full swing at the First Methodist Church.

All Circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service are co-operating to sponsor nine booths featuring a variety of handwork and baked foods during the day. Highlighting the array will be a "grab bag" line at the white elephant booth.

Those attending may lunch and shop at the same time, said Mrs. William S. Hiebert, publicity chairman, as there will be a concession stand selling hot dogs, sandwiches, coffee, and milk.

Next Thursday, Dec. 11, all Circles will gather at the Ladies' Parlors of the church for a Christmas party. Executive board members will hostess the 1 p. m. affair. Mrs. Maude Obarr will lead afternoon devotionals.

TELEGRAM TELLS TALE OF GRANDDAUGHTER

Telegram from Heidelberg, Germany, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Koshak, 2334 W. 238th St., last Monday morning to announce the birth of a new granddaughter, Karen.

Parents of the 7 lb. infant, who arrived Sunday at 7:30 p. m., are Second Lt. and Mrs. John G. Koshak. He is sta-

Guild Slates Potluck

Siamese Woman to Speak At Y Community Festival

Tardt Tradipasena, from the YWCA in Bangkok, Thailand, will headline the internationally-flavored program at the Community Christmas Festival of Nations to be held at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson, Dec. 12 at 7:30 p.m.

The foreign "Y" worker will discuss activities of the "Y" in her country.

Musical interlude will be provided by the music department of Torrance High School. Dances representative of several countries will carry out the international theme.

Exhibits from many countries and foreign delicacies for refreshments will complete the evening offerings.

Plans for the affair, open to the community, were made at last Friday's meeting of the World Fellowship Committee, conducted by Mrs. Phelan Foley, chairman.

As no notice of the event will be sent "Y" members by mail, the membership committee, headed by Mrs. Walter Levy, will notify the membership. This committee also will serve as hostesses at the festival.

GIRL SCOUTS 'COOK-OUT'

Girl Scouts of Troop 936 got a chance to put their learning into practice last Saturday afternoon when they gathered at Torrance Park for a cook-out.

Participating in the meal and games which followed were Julia Smith, Nancy Walters and Karen Korth.

Troop includes among its projects making paper Christmas trees as favors for the women's ward at Harbor General Hospital and will hold its Christmas party and exchange of gifts next Thursday, Dec. 11.

The following Wednesday the girls will tour Mayfair Creamery.

Lorna Winter, W. Ardery Married At Sunday Rites

White gladioli, chrysanthemums, and carnations decorated the First Lutheran Church of Torrance Sunday evening, Nov. 23, for the marriage of Miss Lorna Winter to William Ardery, who are now at home, 6729 C Templeton Ave., Huntington Park.

Rev. Paul Wenske officiated at the double ring ceremony, witnessed by 35 friends and relatives.

The bride chose a street-length gown of teal blue iridescent taffeta with pink accessories and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of rosebuds and pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Harry Burkholder of Rolling Hills, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Her gown was of light blue taffeta with matching accessories, and she carried a nosegay of rosebuds, blue cornflowers and pink and white carnations.

Roy Ardery of South Gate was his brother's best man, and Harry Burkholder ushered.

A dark blue crepe dress with corsage of pink demure roses and white carnations was the costume selected by the bridegroom's mother, who lives in Alhambra.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Burkholder opened her Rolling Hills home to the new-married couple and wedding guests at a reception. She chose fern, gardenias, and roses surrounding a three-tiered cake and crystal punch bowl for table decor.

Assisting at the affair were Mesdames Ralph Winter, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Marie Shanahan. Miss Barbara Shanahan was in charge of the guest book.

The bride, daughter of Charles MacPherson of Newark, Ohio, is a former employee of the local branch of Longview Aircraft Corp. Ardery is employed at the Santa Fe Railroad Co. at Huntington Park.

TO HOSTESS NURSES AT CHRISTMAS FETE

Miss Gertrude Cannon, president of District 25, local branch of the California State Nurses Association, will open her home, 703 W. 139th St., Gardena, next Tuesday evening, Dec. 9, for the annual Christmas party of the district.

WEDDING CAKE . . . Mr. and Mrs. William Ardery cut the first piece of their wedding cake at a reception following their Nov. 23 marriage at the First Lutheran Church here. Reception was held at the Rolling Hills home of Mrs. Harry Burkholder, sister of the bride, the former Lorna Winter.
