

Dorothy Dallas Soloist With EC Production

Mrs. Dorothy Dallas of Torrance, mezzo-soprano, will be one of five featured soloists in the El Camino College production of Johann Sebastian Bach's "The Magnificat," slated for next Sunday, Dec. 14, in the college campus center.

Other soloists in the 8 p.m. show will be Mesdames Margaret Richards of Inglewood, contralto; Ruth Boe, El Camino student and local choir director, soprano; and Bill Grantham, former El Camino student. The bass soloist has not yet been named. Director R. Neil Hill said the work will feature the combined choruses of the college's capella choir and the college community chorus, a total of 75 voices. Piano accompaniment is to be by Miss Kay Haga, and other ensemble instruments will be drawn from the college orchestra. Hamilton Maddaford will play the Hammond organ.

Hill described this work of Bach as one of his most beautiful. "Because of its difficulty, it is not performed as often as its internal beauty deserves," he said. "Text of the work is in Latin and is drawn from the Biblical words of Mary, mother of Jesus, which she spoke upon birth to Jesus.

"Each year it is a custom at El Camino College to present an oratorio or cantata at Christmas," Hill continued. "This performance of the Bach oratorio marks a point of high achievement for the El Camino Music Department."

"There is no admission charge to the program."

Darby Will Not Change Mind On Liquor Sales Ban

Supervisor Raymond V. Darby has made his mind up about sales of liquor in county parks and, by golly, he isn't going to change it.

He told a delegation of Lakewood citizens that they would not be allowed to sell liquor at the Lakewood Country Club, despite a plea which said 67 per cent of the revenues from the club came from sales of intoxicating liquors.

Alondra Park, comparable to Lakewood, does not sell hard liquor on the grounds, but the Park Club is located directly across the street, a practice Darby recommended to the Lakewood group.

TRAFFIC POLICE PREVENT ACCIDENTS

Traffic police save lives. It is through eternal vigilance, citation, gentle warning or their presence that have prevented untold, uncounted accidents.

A Traffic Officer can and does retard speed. To come to a stop at a Stop Sign is a challenge. It becomes a Slow Sign unless we spot an Officer at rest, in plain sight. Then that Stop Sign will bring cars to a full, complete stop. Right?

Every person who drives a car will, upon occasion, exceed the legal speed limit. He'll take a chance—until he sees a Speed Cop, then quickly apply his brakes to a safe speed and assume an innocent facial expression. Funny, but everybody does it.

These men do more than make arrests; they make us behave and save us from days, weeks and months of agonizing pain in a hospital. Do we give them credit? No, but we should.
