Awards Assembly Set Jan. 16 at El Camino

Recognition for achievements in many areas and several sports will be given students at El Camino College in a special awards assembly to be held Jan. 16, Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel, said yesterday. Presiding over the awards assembly will be John Ramsey, student commissioner of athletics.

The award of outstanding interest will be the Metropolitan Football Conference Championship trophy for 1952, which was won by the Warriors with a league record of seven wins and no losses. The Warrior season record was nine wins and a single loss.

Other school trophies to be accepted by the college will be one for second place honors in the Southern California Water Polo Conference gained in a tournament in Fullerton late in November, and third place honors for the water poloists in the National AAU tournament held at Los Alamitos.

"Individual letters are to go to lettermen on the cross-country team, the football team, and the water polo team," Sloan said. "Certificates of participation in a varsity sport and football charms are also to be given."

Intramural Activities

Also to be granted are awards for intramural activities during the fall semester, and awards to be given by the Women's Athletic Association.

Tartar-Gaucha Cage Teams to Clash Tuesday

The Tartar casabamen will entertain their cross-town rivals—the Narbonne Gauchos—in the first meeting of the season for the two cage teams here Tuesday night.

Always a starting point for the new year, the Tartar-Gaucha clash is slated for the new boards of the Torrance High School gymnasium.

Following this non-league warm-up, the Tartars will make the trek to Inglewood Friday night to open the Bay League season against the Sentinels. Meantime in the other gymnasium, the adult league will open fire Wednesday night with Fenwick's Shoes meeting Manhattan Beach All Stars; Lee's Banner Drugs meeting Hot 'N' Tot Cafe, and National Supply against the Redondo Eagles.

FAMED INFANTRY CHORUS . . . The world famous de Paur's Infantry Chorus will appear here tomorrow night as the second concert of the season scheduled by the Community Concert Assn. Admission to the event at the high school auditorium will be limited to those holding season tickets.

Famed Male Chorus To Sing Tomorrow

The most important concert attraction to spring from World War II, de Paur's Infantry Chorus, will be heard here tomorrow evening at 8:15 in the Torrance High School auditorium under the auspices of Community Concert Assn.

The tuneful veterans, who sang for American troops from two Jima to Bad Nauheim, remained together as a unit under Capt. Leonard de Paur's direction and are now making their sixth civilian concert tour of more than 160 concerts under the auspices of Columbia Artists' Management.

Admission tomorrow is limited to those having season tickets.

The de Paur Chorus, organized within the 372nd Infantry Regiment at Fort Dix, N. J., in 1942, gave more than 2000 concerts for American armed forces while in the service, visited every theater of war during the course of their three-year travels. No island was too small, no outpost too remote for the singing infantry men. Sometimes they gave six per-

Bandits Rob Lomita Store

Two armed bandits robbed the owner of a grocery store at 24112 Narbonne Ave. early Tuesday escaping with $400 from a cash drawer, Sheriff's deputies reported.

The victim, James Jue Jr., told Sheriff's deputies he felt something in his back and heard one of the men say "take it easy."

He was ordered to open both cash registers and put the money in a sack.

The bandits then tied Jue and a clerk, Sue S. Nug, and left. The victims were freed later by a customer.

Cub Packs Set For Pancake Feed Saturday

Final plans for a pancake breakfast under the auspices of Cub Scout Packs 228-C and 241-C were being whipped into shape this week as ticket holders were reminded of the affair slated for next Saturday morning—Jan. 10.

To be held on the Jim Dandy Market parking lot, Crenshaw Blvd. and Torrance, the breakfast will feature a menu of pancakes and sausage between 8 a.m. and 12 noon. Music and other entertainment for the four-hour feed are being planned.

Tickets to the breakfast, for which the boys are seeking a donation of 25 cents, are being sold by both packs and will be available at the breakfast, according to Mrs. Ralph M. Robertson, of 1551 W. 221st St., who is supervising the affair. All of the proceeds will go to the two packs as the food for the breakfast is being furnished by Jim Dandy Markets and its suppliers.

In the event of rain, Mrs. Robertson said, the breakfast will be postponed and the tickets will be good when scheduled.

Clearing for New Church Under Way

By ILENE ALLISON
MElo 4-2439

Many of you have no doubt been wondering what all the activity has been about on the 3300 block of West 174th St. This is to be the location of the new Evangelical United Brethren Church. The site was selected this past few weeks and is completely covered with a grove of trees, but, with a vision of a brick church large enough to house the congregation of the area, men and equipment went to work to clear the property. A temporary building will be moved in to be used until the church proper is completed and will later be used for classrooms for the Sunday School. An approximate 70 children are enrolled in the weekly class held at McMaster hall and the need for rooms is most urgent. The proposed new church will be made ready and will welcome all of the area on or about March 1. Church members as well as many others, such as Messrs. Beodan, Oakes, Terry, Black, Bronson, VanBeben and Richter, worked through the Christmas holidays preparatory to moving in the building. A Christmas Eve program was held at McMaster hall with each class being presented with candy and gifts. Carols were sung and the lighting of the Seven Candles depicting the seven gifts of God was carried out with Rev. Kenneth Zeller officiating.

Each person was given a box of candy. The Mothers Club meets at the home of Mrs. Donley, 1727 Wilkie, Tuesday Jan. 6, at 8 o'clock.

Clarlee Harris, 17010 Crenshaw, entertained her fellow Bluebirds (the Busy group) at a party on Dec. 17. The cake was decorated with little bluebirds. Attending the party with leaders Mrs. Marge Bertrand and Mrs. Janice Campos were Sandra Peterson, Diana Bertrand, Cheryl Sale, Danna Walker, Florence Weiner, Diane Campos and Diane Linken.

Doing the unusual in Christmas parties was Girl Scout Troop 1277 under leaders Lois Sanders and Evelyn Holechek. These girls took donations on Christmas trees and sold on a lot on Crenshaw Blvd. to raise the necessary amount to take the entire group to dinner at Ding How Cafe. Girl Scout Troop 1295, under leaders G. Blount and Mrs. Pesola, held a Christmas party at the Blount home and exchanged gifts. Earlier in the day four of the girls made and decorated cupcakes for the event and Mary Margaret Blount, Patty Verburg, Mary Autrey and Julia Widmark acted as hostesses for the evening. This group made 100 Christmas cards and gave them to patients at Harbor General Hospital during the Christmas holidays.

prise of all came when they splited the sleigh full of toys that was under the tree. The adults of the steeet gathered at the Hernan Cortez home to enjoy the customs of the season. The theme was carried out in red and silver with even the sandwiches done up as packages. Those in the group included Mr. and Mrs. Val Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Groves, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Avalos, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Beedon, and Mrs. William Eagle.

On this same day eight little pirates came to celebrate Eric Cortez's seventh birthday dressed in true pirate fashion. Invitations were sent out in chests of gold pieces and even the cake was a chest of treasure! Those enjoying it all included Mike Towell, Larry Eagle, Brock Holbrook, Jennifer Ross, Pamela Fletcher, Wayne Farris, and brother Duke Cortez, (Eric and Mike Towell also celebrated by going out to dinner, seeing Santa Claus, and buying the new much talked of Bwana Devil with their mother).

Mike Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright, 17024 Faye-smith Ave., celebrated his seventh birthday with 16 of the boys and girls of the neighborhood invited in for ice cream and to help eat an enormous Fourth-tiered cake. Making it a combination Christmas and birthday, the children were given favors to take home.

Mr. Henry Brewer acted as best man to his brother-in-law, Edwin Pollock, last week as Edwin was married to Miss Marilyn Dennis in a very beautiful formal church wedding at First Baptist in Lelmer Park. The red and white Christmas wedding was carried out in the traditional candlelight service. Mrs. Betty Brewer, in a lovely gown of red taffeta, received the guests and obtained signatures in the guest book. The beautifully gowned bridesmaids, the background of poinsettias and tall tapered candles, and the singing of Ave Maria made this a most impressive affair.

When Jerry Downing sends his mother a record saying "I'll be home for Christmas," he really means it! Christmas Eve found Jerry home from Santa Barbara, where he is attending University of California, to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bates, 17039 Glenburn Ave.

Parties, parties, parties; From every angle, come the news of the Christmas gatherings at various homes and organizations. The North Torrance Civic Assn. hosted more than 2000 children at their annual Christmas party held at El Camino. Santa Claus talked to many a boy and girl that night! Cartoons were shown and the crowd was presented with toys and stockings filled with candy and fruit.

The Mothers Club of Boy Scout Troop 761 gave the boys a party at McMaster Hall Dec. 18 with an exchange of gifts being made and games played. The boys were treated to hot popcorn supplied by the mothers as well as cookies and punch. Mesdames Sale, Alford, Verburg, Holbrook, Simon, Winthers, Be-gando and President Ruth Snell were on hand to see that it was a merry Christmas for Troop 761.

The boys and girls on Cense Ave. had a big time at the Hook brook home on Dec. 21 when they all gathered to play games. Gifts were exchanged and refreshments of decorated cupcakes and punch were served.

Local Firm Given Area Franchise For New Low Heat Trash Disposer

Appointment of the Liberty Home Economy Co., 1623 Cravens Ave., as one of the area franchise holders for the recently introduced Calculator low heat refuse disposer was announced here yesterday.

The new disposal principle has been hailed by many as the answer to the back yard incinerator which has been receiving a hard time at the hands of smog experts and county officials.

Employing a low-heat principle of dehydrating and then burning the refuse, the Calculator is practically smokeless and it reduces large amounts of garbage and scraps to a handful of clean white ash.

During a two-week test at the Liberty Home Economy Co. store, trash from neighboring businesses and garbage brought in from the homes of nearby residents were put into the three-foot high Calculator. At the end of two weeks, the ash left over didn't fill a shoe box.

A small gas jet about like a pilot light furnishes the constant heat for the dehydrating process. The unit operates no heat, has no odors, and room where the unit is used.

Cost of operating the Calculator is about 40 cents a month, according to Jim Lawson, co-owner of Liberty Home. It can be financed through FHA for about $3 a week.

Operation of the unit may be seen at the firm's Torrance store, 1623 Cravens Ave.

Car License Tab Renewals Available at Local Bank

Torrance folk can get their '53 license tabs the easy way—over the counter at the local branch of the Bank of America, 1330 Sartori Ave., Dean I. Sears, manager, reminded this week. Fees will be accepted and tabs handed over during regular banking hours until Feb. 4 he said.

Sears explained that many tabs must be obtained at a branch of the Department of Motor Vehicles.

The banks make no charge for the service.

Persons going to the bank for license tags must bring along their 1953 potential registration card, which should have been received in the mail now, or will within a few days, Henderson said.
