Reception Honors Departing Walteria Church Couple

They say "illness is golden, but here's one reporter who's hoping that her readers don't agree with that sentiment, since this column was absent last week. Reason? Old Man Flu sneaked up on our family and stopped all activity around our ranch. All of us are up and around again now, so I'll try to catch up on all the holiday activities which hummed so madly around us.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Corey and family spent Christmas Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Corey and family at National City. The William Coreys then spent a few days at the Bud Corey home on Hawthorne Blvd over the New Year's holidays.

The Charles H. Becks of Rain-tree Ave. received a Christmas gift such as few of us could find under our trees. They received a bundle from Mr. Stork on New Year's Eve in the shape of a bouncing baby girl, Cathy Ann weighed six pounds ten and one-half ounces and arrived at the hospital in Inglewood. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Des Bryson of Hawthorne, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Beck of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Riggs of Park St. were guests at the home of their son Bob Riggs and his family in Lomita. They all enjoyed a delicious Christmas dinner and came home full to button-bursting size.

One of the big events on New Year's Eve was the reception held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bowling who left this community after a year's service with the Walteria Community Methodist Church. The couple were given the reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Burgener, Neece Ave. Many friends the couple made during their stay in our community dropped by in the evening to say good-bye and wish them much happiness in their home in Campbell, Calif. Mrs. Bowling looked very lovely in a floor-length gown of navy blue lace with a white and gold stole. Those at the reception enjoyed dainty sandwiches, cake and coffee. It was indeed our loss when these two people left to return to their home in the north, but may we wish them the best of happiness in the years to come, and hope that they will visit with us often.

Two different Christmas dinners this holiday season found four generations seated around the table at the William M. Mitchell home on Danaha St. The first dinner was held on Dec. 23 when Mr. William D. Stark and great grandfather Keith Stark came down for dinner from Alhambra. Mrs. Margaret Dowd, grandmother, also joined Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, while little Billy M. and Marilee completed the four generations. On Christmas Day the Mitchell family were hosts to Mrs. Anna Q. Aitken, great-grandmother, Mrs. Helen A. Ziemer, grandmother, as well as Mrs. Dowd, Mr. Lawrence Ziemer, Mrs. Alexander M. Knox, and children Candy, Alee and Lawrence, and Mr. James Finley. With the exception of Mrs. Dowd, all the guests on Christmas day were from Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pickett were Christmas Day guests of Mrs. Wilda Pickett of Hawthorne.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Heintz of Neece Ave. spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Heintz's sister and family in Pioche, Nev.

Mrs. Pearl Westenhagen, W. 242nd St., was Christmas guest at the home of her son, Walter West, and family in Torrance.

Mrs. Effie Palmer of Torrance was Christmas Day guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Vivian Sanders and family, Ward St.

Unfortunately all news of the holiday season cannot be happy news. We were sorry to hear that two of our residents were involved in automobile accidents. Warren Bennett of Hawthorne Blvd. was shaken up and hospitalized for one day after an accident at Rosserans and Figueroa St. On New Year's Eve a resident of Pacific Hills, Jim Lamperth, Danaha St., was involved in an accident on his way home. Fortunately he was not injured.
