Style Show Slated for Adult Show

A style show featuring dresses and suits made by the students will highlight next Tuesday evening's Adult Education Open House to be held from 7:30 to 9 o'clock at the Torrance High School Cafeteria.

Music for the fashion parade will be played by the Adult Education orchestra, under the direction of Patton McNaughton. This will be the first public appearance of the group.

Also included on the evening's program will be displays of lampshades, upholstery, woodwork, knitting, cake decorating, ceramics, textile painting, leather and metal crafts, and rugs. The Machine Shop class also will exhibit some of its work.

Information about new classes for next semester, to begin Feb. 2, will be available. Refreshments will be served.

Manhunt

their own, Herald Editor Jack O. Baldwin offered the news columns of the Herald to the police chief and to Sgt. Cook to help organize the woman searchers.

"The response to our request for help was more than appreciated. It helped accomplish something in a short time which might otherwise have taken weeks," said Chief Stroth.

"This has done one thing, it nothing else. It has alerted the public. These crimes can and do happen here. With an alert populace we can help prevent such crimes before they happen."

New Directors Seated on Chamber Board

Two new directors, Donald Armstrong and John A. Ebbinghouse, were seated at last Monday's meeting of the Chamber board of directors, the first session for 1953.

Executive Secretary Dale Isenberg stated that the Chamber has become a veritable beehive, acting as a clearing house for ideas submitted by conscientious citizens in response to President Robert I. Plomert Jr.'s request for suggestions of projects to be included in the '53 Chamber of Commerce program.

"Letters and cards addressed to the Chamber on 'What This Town Needs' show our citizens are clear thinkers, and the contents reflect satisfaction and a pride in their own community," he said. "Some response reflected criticism, but an overall picture indicated many constructive suggestions with offers by the writers to roll up their sleeves and pitch in."

President Plomert commented: "The Board of Directors of the Chamber is particularly interested in the citizens' viewpoint on community problems and development as these ideas enable the directorate to plan ahead, anticipating the needs of the community, doing things today before they become problems tomorrow."

Hot Rods Due At Carrell's Next Sunday

The roaring hot rods of the CRA make their 1953 debut next Sunday afternoon at Carrell's Speedway in the first roadster race of the new year.

Wait James, official of the CRA, predicts a record entry for the program, which will feature a 30-day main event.

Such well known Southland drivers as George Amick, George Seeger, LeRoy Nooks, Ed Lockhart, Hardluck Harry Stockman, Tiger Nick Valenta, Bob Chaplin, Colby Scroggins, Don O'Riley, Danny Letner, and Howard Gardner will race.

The hot rods haven't had a race since November and a record crowd is expected.
