J. Cobb Plans June Wedding

Miss Jeanine Kay Cobb will be the June bride of Ernest Moldenhauer Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moldenhauer Sr. of Stanton, Calif., her mother. Mrs. May McGahey, 1503 Crenshaw Blvd., announced this week.
Miss Cobb, a 1952 graduate of Torrance High School, now is employed at Carma Mfg. Co. here. Her fiancé, who served two and a half years with the armed forces, is employed at Douglas Aircraft in North Long Beach.

Initiation Rites Welcome Three Into Eastern Star

Two sisters, Elizabeth Smith and Iris Dextron, entered Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, at initiation ceremonies held last Thursday night at the Masonic Temple on Sartori Ave.

Also initiated was Dorothy Gillen, Estelle Des Jardins, mother of Mesdames Smith and Dextron, served as a courtesy candidate.

Presiding at the rites, their first for 1953, were Thomas Foster, worthy patron, and Joan Simpson, worthy matron.

During escort, Deputy Grand Matron Edna Babcock and Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons Artie Russell, Harold Savage, San Pedro Harbor Chapter; Henrietta Russell, David Vandette, Pt. Fermin Chapter; Lella Kilma, Arthur Lilligraven, Playa Linda Chapter; and Lester Carlson, Carnation Chapter, were honored.

Torrance Chapter was represented by the following past matrons and past patrons: Myrtle Clayton, Hazel Fossum, Lillian Dye, Gladys Mothersell, Helen Miller, Alethea Smith, Mildred Edwards, and Vivian Cook; Oscar Fossum, Archer Lewis, Frederick Cook, Gordon Mothersell and Vincent Violenave.

Also attending were Alice Wells, past matron of Emara Chapter, Long Beach; and Edward Morgan, past patron from Montreal, Quebec.

Following the ceremony, guests enjoyed refreshments of apple pie at tables decorated with flowers and berries. Hostesses for the evening were Alice Spehger, Gladys Mothersell, Helen Miller and Mary Lewis.

BPW's Pledge Support To Narcotics Bill

Each member of the Business and Professional Women's Club will write to Vincent Thomas, assemblyman for this district, urging him to support the new Assembly bill which would impose stiffer sentences on those selling dope to minors. It was decided at last Monday night's dinner meeting, held at the Persian Room in Wilmington.

The bill asks for a life sentence for the first offense and the death penalty for a second.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Dorothy Law, consulting psychologist with the Compton Counseling Service, told of her experiences in counseling.

Chairmen for the evening were Mesdames Frances Lee, Harriet Covington, and Herna Tillim.

Girl Scout, Brownie Leaders Sought by Harbor City PTA

A call for adult leaders in Girl Scout and Brownie work was sent out by Mrs. Ray-Groover, president, at last Thursday's Harbor City Elementary PTA meeting, held at the school auditorium.

At present, the school has only one Brownie and one Girl Scout troop, she said. Both are filled to capacity, with long waiting lists of girls who would like to join.

Anyone interested in leadership training for this type of work may contact Mrs. William Tregarthen, neighborhood chairman, Mrs. Groover announced.

Spotlight on child welfare continued at the Thursday session with a talk by Sgt. K. Turner of the Juvenile Division, Los Angeles Police Department. Speaking on "The Basic Causes of Delinquency," the sergeant said, "There are four needs in the home to aid children emotionally — love, recognition, security and new experiences."

Ninety-one per cent of juvenile delinquents are emotionally unstable and need guidance, he said.
