Residents Cheered At New School News

By HELENE ALLISON Menlo 4-2430

With Valentine Day coming up Saturday there's been a lot of cutting and pasting going on at our houses. I suppose at your house, too. My five-year-old Johnny came upon a pretty little girl with a huge bonnet, and when he learned it read: "To a very sweet little girl," he quickly said, "That's for Sally!" He insisted, however, that she is merely a neighbor.

Residents of the area were cheered by the announcement that bids were being taken Feb. 27th on the proposed Evelyn Carr school to be erected in the near future. The contract will be awarded March 3.

Mrs. Ann Collins, daughter Sally, and this reporter attended the very lovely wedding Feb. 8 of Miss Sandy Gulbranson and Edwin K. Doney at the First Presbyterian Church in Inglewood. Sandy, who most of you will remember, ran for Miss Torrance in 1951, and is well known both in Torrance and North Torrance. Sandy, in her beautiful white gown with a crown of pearls supporting her veil was a picture. Her bridesmaids in pink gowns and carrying pink carnations, and her maid of honor in turquoise blue with yellow carnations were very striking. Sandy carried white orchids. Both the bride and groom attended El Camino and are now in New York en route to Boston where Edwin is stationed with the Army.

The Shrine auditorium was filled to capacity Saturday when the Scout Jamboree got under way. The 761 Troop of this area with the various den mothers as chaperons attended and were thrilled as such entertainers as Jimmy Weldon and Webster Bell. Sister Dell O'Dell and her magic, Uncle Archie, Tex Williams and many others appeared. Quite a day in any young man's life.

The Cub Scout annual Blue and Gold dinner which was previously announced as being held at El Camino will be held at McMaster Hall Feb. 13. Parents are urged to attend. Saturday, Feb. 14, the Cubs will hold a house-to-house doughnut sale.

Brownie Troop 1289, sponsored by North Torrance Elementary School, went on a trip recently to Allied Fur Farms. The children, under the leadership of Mrs. J. Ross and Mrs. G. Cumming, enjoyed watching the chinchillas eating, sleeping, and playing; and were even permitted to touch those expensive little animals—lightly of course.

If never rains but it pours, at least it seems that way to the May family, 18320 Roslin. Not only did Mrs. Margaret May go to the hospital, but the fence caught on fire all in the space of a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Colston, 2066 W. 160th St., are the proud parents of a new little girl born at Torrance Memorial Hospital, weighing 6 pounds and 15 ounces. She was named Mary Lynn. Girls are not novelties at the Colston household for already they have Susan Marie, 3 years old, and Nancy Jane, 20 months. Mr. and Mrs. Colston are native son and daughter reared in Redondo and Inglewood but residing in our area for the last two years. Mr. Colston is a draftsman at North American Aviation.

Don't forget the Alpha So-of Dimes, this week thanked those who worked so diligently for this cause, making it an even bigger success than last year. The donations exceed last year's by $115.

Little Kenyon Brewer had a tonsillectomy this week and is now fit as a fiddle, much to the relief of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewer, of 17032 Glenburn Ave.

Much excitement at the Russell, Holecheks, 17033 Glenburn, Saturday. The family was watching television when the back gate clicked and Russell found the back door open. The only thing missing was Evelyn's cigarettes and lighter from the kitchen table. Maybe this prowler just needed a smoke.

Happy indeed are Mr. and Mrs. Allan Ohman, 16004 Wilton, who now have a young son weighing 8 pounds 5 ounces! He will be named Carl Byron. Proud as punch is little sister Christine, four years old. Mr. Ohman is employed at Northrop Aircraft.

Red Cross workers are needed. If you are interested will you call and leave your number with me?

So sorry to hear that Mrs. Grace Breitenfeldt and Vera Wright are victims of the flu bug. Hope you both are better than new real soon.

Mothers of the children attending Gardena Valley Jewish Center Sunday School, met Feb. 5 for their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Jules Ross, 17209 Della Ave. Plans were made for a Palm Play and party to be held on March 1. Also under consideration are plans for a Passover Seder on April 1 to include the parents as well as the children.

The girls up Faysmith way don't miss a chance to celebrate. This week a double birthday party was given for Carol Vaughn, 17028 Erminita, and Lorraine Beaudwin, 17034 Faysmith, with a planter given to each. A dozen of the ladies of that area were at this gathering to enjoy refreshments with these two, both of voting age.

Speaking of Faysmith, Dot and Arnold Beaudwin had the entire neighborhood over for a backyard wiener roast Saturday.

On Feb. 4, a Valentine potluck luncheon was enjoyed by the room mothers of Miss Schaal's 4th grade at the home of Mrs. Jules Ross, chairman. Gifts were exchanged and plans made for a Valentine party in the school. Attending were Mrs. Ted Kelly, Miss Schaal, Mrs. P. Bridge, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. R. Ferrin, Mrs. E. Backers, and Mrs. R. McDonald.

Mrs. Larry Dorsey, chairman of the North Torrance Elementary area for the Mothers March
