Members Fete 50th Wedding Anniversary

In honor of their fiftieth, yes, their golden wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Memer, mother and father of Don Memer of Reynosa Dr., made a trip to California to visit their children in Inglewood and Torrance. Don and June were hosts at a family buffet while they were here, at which each gave the "Golden Couple" a gift commemorating the occasion. Among those present to make the party a memorable one were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Memer, Rev. and Mrs. Cecil Memer of Inglewood, and Mrs. E. Van Fossan of Burbank. It was quite an adventure for Lawrence and Laura, who are 73 and 71 years young respectively, and who reside in Avon, S. Dak. While here they were on the go constantly seeing all the sights, among which were the glass church at Portuguese Bend and the harbor at San Pedro. The weary but happy couple left last Sunday by train for their home, with so many happy memories to add to their already treasured store.

The Mothers Club of Girl Scout Troop No. 610 were the guests of Sally Garrity in her Kathy Way home last week. It was the regular monthly meeting of the group, and of course, the cookie sale was one of the main subjects to be discussed, along with plans for the troop's Court of Awards which will be held Thursday evening, Feb. 26 in the parish hall of Nativity Church. Those who enjoyed the coffee and cake, served by the hostess at the conclusion of the business were Mesdames Clare Swintek, the leader of the troop; Claire Farrel, president of the Mothers Club, Louise Cook, Violan Harwood, C. Denton, B. White and J. Swift.

February is really a birthday month here in the Knolls, for just this week there is Archie Carline's on the ninth, Rev. Ed. Harness, Frank Curry, and Vivian Wise, all share the 10th as their natal day, while the eleventh finds Vera Nell Slinger celebrating and Betty Wentz and my little cherub (?) Jorie Cunningham share the twelfth with

Author to Speak To Area Writers

Charles Carson, author, lecturer, and critic will be guest speaker for the Southwest Manuscripters at the next meeting, to be held at the Clark Stadium in Hermosa Beach on Friday, Feb. 20. A descendant of the famous Kit Carson, the author has written several novels, more than 100 magazine articles and stories, and text books. His most recent novel, "Mountain Troubadour," is his best known. The guest speaker will discuss "Mistakes Common to the Writer." Membership in the Southwest Manuscripters is open to anyone sincerely interested in writing. Details may be obtained by calling the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Elsie L. Pestoff, at Frontier 5-3464.
