Chapel to Address HR Sportsmen Meet

By MARY and JACK WEBB
Frontier 53051

Two new members were accepted into the Hollywood Riviera Sportsmen Club recently. John Walti, 376 Paseo de Gracia, membership chairman announced this week. Dr. H. S. Kopp, 116 Via la Circula, joined the swelling ranks of the Sportsmen, as did Jack Veltman, new owner of the Frontier Market. Tonight is ladies night at the

at the Riviera Beach Club, when all wives are invited to join their husbands at their meeting. Charles Chapel, 46th District Assemblyman, will highlight the meeting with an informative talk on methods the average citizen can use to influence legislation. Films using local talent and produced by member Will Zens are also scheduled for showing. Regular Sportsmen Club meeting

Riviera PTA hospitality chairman Mrs. O. C. Lundstrom, 305 Calle de Andaluca, reminds members that the PTA is still collecting silverware coupons. Any spare silver coupons will be gratefully accepted by the association for use in their collection of silverware for the school.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ferrel, 724 Calle de Arboles, were the Ed Ferrals from Escondido, Calif. They are Claude's brother and sister-in-law. They accompanied the Claude Ferrals to Las Vegas last week-end to visit Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ferrel Sr.

New Neighbor Dept.: Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Madson and son Thor, now ensconced in their new home at 206 Via Los Altos, where they have resided since August. The new home at 108 Vista del Parque were Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Glosser and son and daughter, Donald 6, and Candy, 7 months. Mrs. Glosser is the niece of former Torrance mayor, William H. Tolson, and the family moved here from their former home in Gardena. Mr. Glosser works for Procter and Gamble in Long Beach.

After two years on atom bomb research at Nagasaki, Japan, Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Wright returned to the United States and have taken up residence at 429 Via Los Miradores. Both husband and wife are M.D.'s, the latter practicing at Harbor General Hospital, while the former is an instructor in pediatrics at the new medical division at UCLA.

Recently moving into their

United States, decided it would be a good idea to go to Sun Valley for the snow sports. Nola glided around on skis quite well until the day after New Year's when she took a tumble and came up with the fractured limb. She reports that as of now, she is feeling fine again, although the leg is still a bit stiff. Our word of comfort is this: If all legs broken from skiing were laid end to end, it would make a weird sight. In other words, you're not alone, in your

Nothing like lying around with a broken leg, we always say. Whether Mrs. Matt Brunning, 347 Calle de Andaluca, agrees with us or not, she is nonetheless at present lying around with a broken leg. Of course, the leg is healing nicely, but the breaking of it makes a nice story. During the just past New Year's holidays, Mr. and Mrs. Matt, along with several hundred citizens from all over the her lung. She was rushed to the hospital where she passed away in the late afternoon. She was 88 years of age. Services were held in the White and Day Chapel in Redondo Beach last Tuesday, with Rev. Paul Cox of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church officiating. Mrs. Pitts is survived by her sister, Mrs. Mabel March, who resides at the same address. They have lived in the Riviera for about three and a half years.

spill on the hill, as a matter of fact there is another skier right here in Hollywood Riviera whose broken-while-skiing leg is on the mend—H. B. Bolas of 848 Calle de Arboles.

Maybe you could start a club—you two!

Mrs. Eleanor Pitts, 627 Calle de Arboles, died Saturday, Feb. 14, at the Harbor General Hospital, following an accident in her home. A fall from a chair broke her ribs, one puncturing
