RECEIVES COMMENDATION . . . Pfc. Clifford W. Stith is congratulated by Col. Richard D. Meyer, Eighth Army Transportation Officer, after receiving the Commendation Ribbon during ceremonies in Korea. Stith was commended for meritorious service while assigned as a clerk in the statistical branch of the Eighth Army transportation section. The soldier, who was recently rotated to the United States, spent 17 months in Korea and received the UN Service Ribbon and Korean Service Ribbon with three campaign stars. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos R. Stith, 20421 S. New Hampshire St., Torrance.

Schedule of Wednesday Night Services Planned

Following a pre-Lenten visitation during which members have been urged to attend church regularly, St. Andrew's Episcopal Church begins its regular schedule of Wednesday night services with evening prayer at 8 p.m. on Ash Wednesday.

Each succeeding Wednesday there will be a guest missionary to tell of the work being done in the Episcopal churches of the local diocese.

The services will all be held at 8 p.m. on succeeding Wednesday nights during the season of Lent according to Rev. Arthur E. Bell, rector of the church.

On Feb. 25th, Rev. L. Williams from St. John the Baptist Church in Compton will be guest speaker.

On March 4, Rev. Lowell McDowell of the Church of the Holy Community, Gardena, will speak.

On March 11, Rev. Robert Steller, vicar of St. Timothy's Church, Compton, will be the guest speaker.

On March 18, Rev. Roger Strem, St. Michael's Mission, El Segundo, will be the speaker.

On March 25, Dean Kimbell Saville, of St. Michael's Parish, Anaheim, will speak.

Dean Saville is dean of the Long Beach Convocation and will sum up the growth of the diocese as a portion of his message.
