Shoes on the Porch Means New Carpets

By ILENE ALLISON Menlo 4-2490

Many from North Torrance Elementary PTA attended the Torrance Council Founders Day program at the Christian Church Feb. 17. A conversation piece was the table decor of foreign dolls. A panel of foreign students from Pepperdine College was most interesting. The Boys Glee Club of Torrance High School gave several numbers. Those attending included Miss Jackson, O'Dell, Cortez, Blum, field, who was elected corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Jules Ross, who was elected auditor for the coming year. Principal Robinson and Vice-principal Jones also were present.

To passersby it might have looked a little odd to see the shoes lined up on the Bates porch at 3709 Glenburn Friday evening, but to Janice it wasn't at all. You see, the neighbors dropped by to wish Alex many happy returns of the day and carpeting had just been laid so the shoes were left outside! Alex refused to state his correct age, but maintained life was supposed to begin so . . . Those in for the chatter and cake included Mr. and Mrs. Russell Holechek, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fadick, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Mack, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Allison. The Bates spent the week-end in San Francisco accompanied by their daughter, Mary Jan.

Sunday, Feb. 15, many friends gathered at 17416 Glenburn to greet Robert Bowen on his 17th birthday. Valentine cakes were served the guests by Robert's grandmother, Mrs. George Denney. From his wheelchair, Bob enjoyed seeing school friends and relatives. Among those were Pat Cooper, Mike Casino, Ronnie Hogan, Jim Babbs, Edward McVey, Larry Carter, David Smith, Jerry Allison, Jackie Bailie, Carol Walton, Billie May Moore, Mrs. Bess Moore, and Dale and Helen Trust. Robert is being returned to Harbor General pending surgery this week. The best wishes of all go with him.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sale and children Billie and Cheryl attended the Date Festival at Indo Sunday and were quite thrilled at the costumes seen.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Day and son accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burnam motored up Santa Ana Canyon way last week-end.

Sandra Bailie, who celebrated her 10th birthday this week, invited some 15 of her school chums from Perry in to enjoy the beautifully decorated cake and ice cream. Many nice gifts were presented to this small hostess, who resides at 4222 W. 179th St.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Maas from Milwaukee, Wis., planned in to visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoffman, of 17055 Faysmith Ave., this week.

The diaper set toddled over to Gary Holebrook's to share the pretty blue and white cake and get some of the ice cream.

In honor of Gary becoming a young man of two years! Gary received a bright new tricycle from his parents, the Reese Holebrooks, who reside at 17512 Cerise Ave.

Happy birthday to Joe Fletcher who celebrated by having friends over for dinner. Betty and Joe reside at 17526 Cerise Ave.

Work on the North Torrance Community Church is coming along and the dedication perhaps will be in April at a date yet to be set. A paper drive on a ranch . . . much to the delight of the Eagle children. They reside at 17515 Ermanita Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eagle and family have returned from a week in Arizona with friends on a ranch . . . much to the delight of the Eagle children. They reside at 17515 Ermanita Ave.

To list those who have been or are down with the flu bug would be too much, but take our word for it that two of the best sellers in any drug store today are aspirin and Kleenex! Dicky and Dennis Bush 4223 W. 179th St., are victims; Mrs. Helen Holebrook, Mrs. Marcella Fannon, Mrs. Dean Blake and many, many more have been very ill.

Girl Scout Troop 1377, under the leadership of Mrs. Peggy Ball, was invited by Longren Aircraft Co. to attend the morning matinee at the Stadium Theatre Saturday, Feb. 21. Those attending included Darlene Holechek, Lella Santor, Leota Pierce, Jean Sorell, Wilbertin Bido, Fay Amundson, Joanne Beckham, Diane Hodges, Yvonne Jiminez and Co-leader Madell Holmes with her two children, Pamela and David.
