

Shown after their Feb. 12 wedding are the former Miss Betty Camp and Marine Sgt. Kenneth Halbert who are expected to return here from a Texas honeymoon this week-end. After a brief stay in the city they will make their home at Bremerton, Wash.

FORMER BETTY CAMP, GROOM TO VISIT HERE; LIVE IN WASHINGTON

The former Miss Betty Camp and her husband, Marine Sgt. Kenneth Halbert, are expected to return from a Texas honeymoon this weekend to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Camp, 2023 Border Ave., before leaving to establish a home at Bremerton, Wash., where he is stationed on the USS Essex. Wed at ceremonies in the Church of Christ on Thursday, Feb. 12, the new Mr. and Mrs. have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Halbert, at Grand Prairie, Tex.

Friends Bid Farewell To Deanna Ball

Because she is moving soon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ball, neighborhood friends of Miss Deanna Ball, surprised her last Monday with a farewell party. Gathering at the 1608 W. 203rd St. Ball home for the fete were Nancy Cable, Anita Pinkerton, Esther Van Wagner, Maxine Brumett, Wilma Shanton, Nadine Bida, Patsy Pascoe, and Frances Nelson. The girls presented the honoree with a white cake decorated with roses and a farewell gift. The Balls will soon take up residence at 333 W. 166th St.

Y-TEENS ELECT LEADERS FOR SPRING SEMESTER

With the beginning of the new semester, Torrance Y-teens of the YWCA elected new officers to serve for the spring term. The Betas will have as their leaders Betty Gyllenskog, president; Dolores Knutilla, vice-president; Joyce Bernhardt, program chairman; Carol Darst, secretary; Gloria McCann, treasurer; Stella Emery, chaplain; Nancy Henry and Shirley Smith, sergeant-at-arms. Jean Lancaster and Frances Barrington are the advisors of this active group. Serving as the president of the Flamingos is Linda Thistle, who will be assisted by Kathleen Curtis, vice president; Fay Malahan, secretary; Joan Jernigan, treasurer; Nancy Rodgers, chaplain; and Nancy Humphreys, historian. The adult working with this group is Kay Klapas.

The Continentals, with Mrs. Thomas Westfall as advisor, will have for their officers: Jane Quilivan, president; Sally Curran, vice president; Charlotte Kudlemeyer, secretary; Carol Click, treasurer; Carmelita Ballad, historian; and Carolyn Chapman, sergeant-at-arms. Robin Cockerill has been chosen president of the Torrettes. Serving with her are Marylou Sassa, vice-president; Martha Williams, secretary; Naomi Likens, treasurer; Joy Householder, assistant chaplain; and Rita Harris, sergeant-at-arms. Connie Stout will head the corps of officers for the Debutantes. Her assistants include: Judy Nash, vice-president; Judy Ann Reid, secretary; Yolanda Goldsmith, treasurer; Doris Popovich, chaplain; Joan Davis, historian; and Carolyn Mallo, sergeant-at-arms. Mrs. J. G. Yarbrough advises this group.

Serving as leaders of the SSW Y-teens will be Ann Leo, president; Carole Wiltanen, vice-president; Judy Peckham, secretary; and Lucille Bridges, treasurer. The advisors are Mrs. L. G. Pulliam and Mrs. Sally Kaye. Patti Smith is the president of the Seaside club, and Mrs. Darrel Smith is the advisor.

Many friends from Torrance and many of the bride's co-workers at the local Columbia Steel plant traveled to St. Catherine Labourer Church in Lawndale on Valentine's Day to witness a ceremony uniting Miss Mary Margaret Forster and Ralph Suchy in marriage. For the 9 a.m. rites, performed by the Rev. Raymond Tepe, the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Forster, 719 E. 142nd St., Hawthorne, selected a Chantilly lace gown and a white carnation bouquet centered with red roses. Attending her were Mary Barrett, maid of honor, in light blue taffeta and net, and Barbara Schaefer, bridesmaid, in copen blue taffeta and net. Both girls carried nosegays of pink roses and sweet peas. Donald C. Forster was best man, while Robert Forster, Charles Cowan, and Everett Kita seated guests. Following the wedding, the new Mr. and Mrs. were feted at a reception at St. Catherine Parish Hall. The former Miss Forster is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Suchy, 4156 W. 188th St., Lawndale and a graduate of Leuzinger High School, is now with the U. S. Navy.

Pioneer Spirit Lives Again; JayCettes Plan Box Social

One of the youngest clubs in the community, the JayCettes, will use one of the oldest American entertainment ideas for its first big social event of the spring season, to be held Saturday evening, Mar. 28, at the VFW Hall in Lomita. The affair will be a box social. Following the tradition of the pioneer wives, JayCettes and the feminine halves of invited couples will prepare box supper, then use their ingenuity to decorate the boxes. Beginning at 8 o'clock the social, their contents, and the cooks will be sold to the highest bidder among Jayces and male friends for the supper hour. A dance to the popular discs of the day will follow. Mrs. Jack Baldwin is general chairman in charge of the social. Assisting her are Mesdames Dale Stanton, Gordon Jones, Tony Ryback, Don Carpenter, Bill Pollock, and Frank Norris.

Cub Scouts Get Charter

Presentation of the pack charter, membership cards, and awards highlighted last Sunday's blue and gold dinner held at El Retiro Park by the Cub Scouts of Pack No. 877 to celebrate the 43rd anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. Philip Savage, chairman of the committee, received the charter, presented by Don Whitney, president of the pack's sponsor, the Homeowners Association, on behalf of the boys. Receiving membership cards were Jack Satterlee, Cubmaster; Arthur O'Keefe, assistant Cubmaster; Dave Cochran, Lee F. Washington, A. J. Patrosky, and Savage, committeemen; and Mesdames Philip Savage, Jack Treacy, and John Dowling, den mothers. Awards were presented by Satterlee and O'Keefe to the following:
Den 1—Robert Patrosky, bear badge and gold arrow; Bill Satterlee, silver arrow.
Den 2—Frank Brennan, two silver arrows; John Gothafer, one-year pin; Phil Savage, bear badge; Michael Scott, silver arrow; Bob Brockett, bear badge, gold and silver arrow.
Den 3—Carl Carrillo, wolf badge, gold arrow; Kenneth Welber, bobcat pin; Bartley Milline, den chief cord.

Mary Forster, Ralph Suchy Recite Vows

Following a busy afternoon of playing "Drop the Hankie" and watching scenes projected by a Vuemaster, the children gathered at the refreshment table where they received favors of red and white "windmills." A heart-shaped cake scalloped in red, decorated with red roses and inscribed "Happy Birthday, Carolyn," centered the table. Sharing in the festivities were Jill Ingram, Jorie Cunningham, Sandra Bridges, Donna Hedrick, Judy Hill, Dottie Hill, Kennon Smith, Terry Miller, Dickie Wilson, and Yvonne Turner.
