Textile Class To Be Conducted At Walteria

A new class in textile painting will be held on Thursday night starting March 5, from 7 to 10 in room 1 at the Walteria School. It was announced this week by Vernon Shebjak, director of Adult Education. Instructor of the course will be Wanda Conaty, who has had wide experience in teaching textile painting and is well known to adult education students locally. "The course is free and cost of materials extremely low," Mrs. Conaty emphasized in urging students to enroll immediately to learn an art that can prove both pleasurable and profitable. A wide variety of samples will be on display Thursday night, including everyday items that take on color, glamour, and charm through the art of textile painting. This class is in addition to the regular Wednesday evening meets from 7 to 10 in room 124 at Torrance High School and

Snow Brings Demand for Resort Data

Requests for descriptive literature and pamphlets of the various mountain areas took a sharp upturn at the local Chamber of Commerce this week as a result of the heavy rains and snowfalls in the mountain regions recently. It was reported yesterday by Executive Secretary Dale Isenberg. "We have on hand several hundred pamphlets describing points of interest up and down the West Coast from Canada to Mexico for those who are planning their vacations early," said Isenberg. He said the Chamber also had choice literature detailing overnight and week-end jaunts to the mountains, seashore, and desert. In addition to timetables for all major airlines, local and national railroads, and the Torrance Municipal Bus lines.

which has openings for a few more students. Since instruction is on an individual basis, adults may enroll at any time.

Church Choir To Present 'The Holy City'

First of three programs to be presented by the choir of the First Christian Church will be given Sunday evening at 7:30 at the church when the group sings "The Holy City," by A. R. Gaul. The 30-voice choir, under the direction of Charles Bartholomew, has arranged a series of three programs for the purpose of raising funds through personal subscription and offerings to purchase a new grand piano for the church sanctuary. Sunday evening's presentation will feature solo performances by Sopranos Helen Levy, Lorita Lincoln, and Mary Bartholomew; Alto Julia Louger; Tenors Margaret Foster, Dean Lougee; and Fred Lincoln Jr.; and Basses Howard Foster and Milton Hubel. The second program, featuring "The Seven Last Words of Christ," will be given on Monday Thursday, April 2. It will be combined with a candlelight communion service. The third program will be given sometime in May and will be the presentation of the "Messiah."
