Ex-Hi-Lites Writer Leaving the Heights

By DOROTHY HERBST Frontier 5-4807 This first bit of news is something I wish I didn't have to report. But many of you already know that the Ryckman family is leaving us this Saturday, Emmett — or "Riek" to some of us — has found a house in Lancaster near his work at North American's Aerial Physics Hangar located at Edwards Air Force Base. An important cog in the wheels of progress here in the Heights will be missing with their going. Civic affairs, PTA work, Scouting — all will feel the loss of these two people who have given so much of their time and energy to the betterment of our community. Judy, also, will leave a void among fifth graders in Mr. White's room. In fact, it's been whispered to me that several young men are liable to pack their things and head for the desert. We'll be hearing about their doings out that-a-way, though. Grayce, former author of "Hi-Lites," has promised to write an occasional guest column for us. And there's one bright spot in the picture, neighbors. Their house on Bindewald is not up for sale. Maybe they'll be back among us some day. Good luck to you, Grayce, Emmett and Judy. Scouting News: Boy Scout Troop 726 had quite a trip on the week-end of Feb. 20-22. Scoutmaster Floyd Holstin, with the help of Assistant Scoutmaster Bob Holstin and Mr. Muldoon, took 35 boys up to O'Neill Park near Santa Ana. The purpose of the outing was to give the Scouts a chance to finish their rank requirements before the night's Court of Honor. It was a well-planned outing and I hear the boys had a wonderful time. Girl Scouts, too, had awards in mind at a cook-out last Saturday which took place in Mrs. McFadden's back yard in Allied

Gardens. These girls were making preparations to become second-class Scouts: Judy Ryckman, Paula Williams, Wendy Wilcox, Donna McFadden, Carol White, Jean Woodard and Maren Courtney. Cub Scouts are in the news this week, too. Friday, Feb. 20 was the date of the Blue and Gold banquet for Pack 726C. Held in the El Retiro Recreation Hall, the pot luck dinner was in celebration of the 43rd anniversary of Scouting. Cub Master Dick Nauman presented advancement awards to Guy Pierce, Robert Hutton, Charles Thorne, Robert Hite Jr., David Bristol, Bruce Shockey and Billy Gaul. One more bit of Scouting news — Charline Phillips of Bindewald, is a new Den Mother. She is taking over part of Mrs. Hite's Den No. 4. Right here let me offer a verbal bouquet to the ladies of the Heights who do so much to further Scouting activities. Our hats are off to Peg Thorne, Sue Burk, Norma Ledbetter, Ann Hite, Esther

Steele, Merle Holstin, Grayce Ryckman, and of course, Charline Phillips. New Neighbor Dept.: Mr. and Mrs. Wade Habshey, of Birmingham, Ala., have lived at 5286 Doris Way for three weeks now and it's high time they were introduced through our column. The Habsheys have two children — Linda Sue is 3 and Wade Jr. is just 1½. Mr. Habshey is employed by Douglas Aircraft at El Segundo. Perhaps you noticed two other newcomers to the Heights at 5144 Zakon Rd., the home of Peg and Ed Thorne. Mr. Charles W. Herrin, Peg's father, and Mrs. Elizabeth Harvey, a very dear friend of the family, arrived from Philadelphia last Sunday. Mrs. Harvey's stay will be indefinite but you'll be greeted with envy when I tell you that Mr. Herrin will begin a trip around the world in eight days. There'll be a short pause here while we all breathe a deep sigh!
