

FIRST MARRIED SMILES . . . of John L. Schulz Jr. and his bride, the former Miss Joan King, were caught by the cameraman at a wedding reception in the 2321 Carson St. home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. King. The young Torranceites chose Valentine's Day for the marriage ceremony and are now making their home at 1417-D Greenwood Ave.

SHE WEARS A DIAMOND . . . Of interest to her many Torrance friends is the betrothal of Miss Joan Hayward Wood, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Wood of Laguna Beach, to Roberto Morales of Mexico City and Loma, Mex. Miss Wood made her home with her aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Howard A. Wood, 1517 El Prado, while attending Torrance High School, from which she graduated in 1948. She also attended Scripps College in Pomona and Mexico City College. She and Morales, a graduate of the University of Mexico, plan a March 22 wedding at the Congregational Church in Long Beach.

Valentine-Wed John Schulzes Have Greenwood Ave. Home

Now making their home at 1417-D Greenwood Ave. are John L. Schulz Jr. and his bride, the former Miss Joan King, who were among many Torrance couples choosing Valentine's Day to repeat wedding vows.

Site of the ceremony linking the pair was performed before the altar of the new St. Cross Episcopal Church in Hermosa Beach. The Rev. Richard I. S. Parker officiated.

Little Kay Dean Barnes, niece of the groom who served as flower girl, set the Valentine theme for the wedding in a white taffeta, waist-length gown sprinkled with tiny red hearts. The bride's flowers, carnations, orchids, and hyacinths framed in a heart were in keeping with the lady loveliness of her white Chantilly, waist-length gown and matching veil. In bright contrast were the Valentine-red tulle costumes worn by her maid of honor, Majella Welch of North Hollywood, and her bridesmaids, Roberta Gatz of Santa Paula and Mary Jo Mott of Hawthorne.

Each of the attendants carried a bouquet of carnations in a heart-shaped frame.

Attending the groom as best man was Frank M. Ainsworth. Those ushering were Duane Steele and Roger Heman Jr. of North Hollywood.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Frank M. Ainsworth secured signatures of the 200 guests who gathered at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. King, 2321 W. Carson St., for the wedding reception.

The former Miss King is a Torrance High School and El Camino College graduate. At the college, she was affiliated with Chi Theta Chi sorority.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Schulz Sr., 2012 Andree Ave., also is a graduate of Torrance High School. He served as sergeant first class with the National Guard, 40th Division, for two years.

SLATE JAM SESSION

"Little Jay Jam Session" will hold forth in the YWCA building tomorrow night, 8:30 to 11:30 p.m., to the music of Manuel Bugara and his orchestra. The dance is sponsored by

The Social World

IGNES BOLTER, Editor

TRYING OUT THE EFFECT . . . of a green and black top hat and a glittering clay pipe against a curtain are, left to right, Mesdames B. W. Roberts and John Oursler, decoration chairman for the Mar. 17 Torrance Woman's Club Fashion Show. The hat and two pipes will be placed on the stage curtain of the Civic Auditorium to set the St. Patrick's Day theme for the 8 p.m. affair.

Pre-Nuptial Fete Honors D. Keldrauk

Shades of the pink and green which will be worn by members of her bridal entourage highlighted the decoration scheme at a recent luncheon honoring Miss Dorothy Ella Keldrauk, who will wed William Lewis Boren tomorrow night at ceremonies in the Little Chapel of the Dawn at Santa Monica.

Mrs. Fred Boren hosted the affair for her future daughter-in-law at her 1318 Elm St. home. She chose for a table centerpiece two miniature dolls, representing the matron of honor, Mrs. Julius Meldrum, and the bridesmaid, Miss Mary Louise Lutz, who were in attendance at the affair.

The pink and green of their costumes was echoed in tiny nuptials fashioned like flowers. For floral decor, the hostess chose white daisies, anemones, callas, and gardenias.

About 25 friends, relatives, and members of the Lioness Club shared in the afternoon festivities.

SSW Y-Teens, who are led by Ann Leo, president, and Mrs. Eileen Pulliam, advisor.

Seniors Plan Irish Decor For March 17 Style Show

In keeping with St. Patrick's Day, the date selected for their annual fashion show, Torrance Woman's Club members are planning to decorate the Civic Auditorium, site of the style parade, with an Irish theme.

Mesdames B. W. Roberts and John Oursler, decoration chairmen, have created clay pipes and a green and black top hat sparkling with glitter dust to decorate the stage curtain. They also have made giant sham rocks, which will be placed in flower pots throughout the auditorium to add a further touch of Erin.

Other floral arrangements are being planned by La Galeria Florists.

Models from the junior and senior clubs are still being selected to show the "Around the Clock" fashions from Sam LeComita. With Mrs. Curney's Department Store, which will include cottons, playclothes, morning wear, afternoon dress, and evening gowns.

There also will be a special travel and resort group featuring the latest modes in women's wear as well as both airplane and regulation luggage. Professional models will display lingerie and bathing suits.

Mrs. Edward (Ella) Swartz of Levy's store is co-ordinating fashions for the show.

TORRANCE PIANISTS GIVE RADIO RECITAL

Three young Torrance pianists presented a recital of classical and modern music over radio station KGER Monday of last week.

Those playing were Cheri Moore, Diana Wilson, and Carolyn Nelson, all students of Florence Westerdahl, who teaches in Torrance and hopes to establish a piano and organ studio soon. She will offer instruction in both classical and modern music.

Ladies' Guild to Plan For April Rummage Sale

Plans for an April rummage sale will be made next Wednesday, March 11, when the Ladies' Guild of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church holds a 2 p.m. meeting at the Guild Hall.

Mrs. Howard McDonald will conduct the business session, while afternoon hostesses will be Mesdames W. Haslam, J. Lancaster, and A. Ruppel.

Schnebly's Doreen, Navyman Wed, Honeymoon In Mexico

Now honeymooning in Mexico are the former Miss Doreen Lorraine Schnebly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Schnebly, 3546 Newton St., and her husband, Seaman First Class Paul Robert Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Carlson of Winter Haven, Fla.

The couple left for the land south of the border immediately after a reception which followed 8 p.m. candlelight rites held Feb. 21 at the Del Aire Baptist Church in Hawthorne. Scene of the gathering, attended by 100 relatives and friends, was the church social hall.

Choosing a ballerina-length gown of white Chantilly lace over slipper satin with matching lace bolero, the bride, who graduated last June from Torrance High School, was given in marriage by her father.

A Juliet cap trimmed in the same Chantilly lace and tiny seed pearls held her shoulder-length veil of nylon tulle in place, and she carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid.

Her sister, Miss Helen Schnebly, attended as maid of honor in a pink net over matching taffeta gown accented by a bouquet of blue iris with pink streamers.

While the bride and groom knelt at the altar, Mrs. Clyde Hawthorne, who also sang "I Love You Truly" prior to the rites, sang "Prayer Perfect." Mrs. Richard Anderson accompanied at the organ.

The groom, who is now stationed on the USS "Boyd," was attended by James Box, Alex Winner ushered.

Officiating minister was the Rev. C. Marvin Anderson of the Del Aire Baptist Church.

FAMILY LIVING IS NEXT LECTURE TOPIC

"Creative Family Living" is the topic of the last in a series of six free lectures on parent education, to be held at the Seaside School auditorium next Wednesday, March 11, from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

Mrs. Dorothy Law, who is well known in the Torrance area will be the speaker. She will discuss new approaches in discipline, brother-sister relationships, jealousy, family council, allowances, relatives, and other family problems.

The series has been sponsored by the Torrance School of Adult Education, and Seaside and Riviera PTAs.

HONEYMOONING IN MEXICO . . . are the new Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robert Carlson, shown here in typical bridal pose at a reception following their Feb. 21 wedding. Scene of the festivities is the social hall of Del Aire Baptist Church in Hawthorne.

ACROSS THE BLUE PACIFIC . . . to the Philippines will ship from Girl Scout Troop No. 1299, sponsored by Fern Negro Oriental. The girls spent many weeks sewing building Wednesday to wrap them for mailing. Among Sharon Giles, Paula Bischoff, Diane Hunter, Carol Shinoda, go across the seas both ways; at Christmas-time, members shells to the Torrance girls.

go these story-book dolls, a token of International Friendship. Ave.-Greenwood PTA, to their Girl Scouts pen pals in Bali, clothes for the miniatures, then gathered at the YWCA those participating were, left to right, Donna Arrasmith, Loretta Robison, and Mardell Clayton. The friendship tokens of the Philippine troop sent pins they had made from sea