HENRY KAFKA
... Reopening Renee Shop

Renee Shop Set To Open Here Next Saturday

Announcing the reopening of Renee Shop at 1335 El Prado next Saturday, March 14, was Henry Kafka, formerly associated with the shop when it was located on Sartori Ave.
The shop, which will open in modernized, refurbished surroundings, will feature leading makes of ladies' ready-to-wear and sports togs, Kafka said.
Associated with him in the shop will be Bonnie Bland, who formerly operated the Renee shop here.
Kafka has been away from Torrance about three years, he said. During that time he visited Paris, New York, and South America.
Two pairs of sheer nylon hose will be offered for $1.00 with purchases at the store Saturday, Kafka said.

Neighbors Together In Service

Two men who were neighbors in Torrance are training together in the Army at Camp Roberts.
Assigned to Co. A, 23rd Anti-Aircraft Battalion, CCA, are Edward G. Boyce, whose parents live at 1610 W. 214th St.; and Charles E. Reese, whose mother lives at 1618 W. 214th St.
The men are assigned for training at the "huge" Replacement Training Center, now the home of the "Lucky Seventh" Armored Division.

Local Knights Of Columbus to Honor Cardinal

Knights of Columbus from the Torrance area will honor Francis Cardinal McIntyre at the annual Passion Sunday Communion and breakfast at the Cathedral of St. Vibiana in Los Angeles on March 22.
Cardinal McIntyre will celebrate the mass which will be followed by a breakfast at the Statler Hotel.
The Southern California chapter of the Knights of Columbus will present the Cardinal with the Pectoral Cross, which is the ceremonial cross used by princes of the church.
