Carpentry Students to Construct 2-Bedroom Home on ECC Campus

Plans for a two-bedroom home to be built on the El Camino College campus by carpentry students have been approved and preparations are being made to procure the materials needed for the building, Carl Artwedson, business manager, said today.

After the house is built, he explained, it will be sold at auction to the highest bidder and then another house-building project will begin using the money from the sale. The minimum bid which will be accepted will cover the complete cost of materials used in the construction of the house.

North Torrance GI Due in from Korea

By ALENE ALLISON Memo 4-24-50

The group is accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Vaught.

Perhaps one of the happiest families in the area is that of the Andy Irvines, of 4239 W. 178th Pl., who have just received the news that their son, Corporal Allen R. Irvine (Bob), 1st Cavalry Fifteenth Medical Battalion, who for the past two years has been in Korea, is the next on the rotation list!

Community Church, still held at McMaster Hall pending the completion of the new building, was honored by the appearance of Rudolph Bowen of Central Church who, accompanied at the piano by Nell Montgomery, gave a beautiful rendition of the "Lord's Prayer" on the marimba. The girls chorus gave a few selections. Acknowledgment is given, to the following for the work done to place the building on the foundation this Saturday. The group included from a sister church in Santa Ana, Rev. John Visick, Mr. A. Hager and Mr. Nickolson and equipment. Those non-members of the group who nevertheless have donated many hours include Mike Hardin, Bill Johnson, Jack Day, Clint Beeson, and Bob Richter. The ladies of the Alpha provide dinner on the grounds. The dedication of the new building will be in June; in the interim, church and Sunday school is held at McMaster. Easter morning special music will be offered and all are invited to attend. Rev. Kenneth Zeller will officiate.

house State One-Act Play tournament, had been given the superior award by the judges. This group was given the Governor Earl Warren trophy, stage equipment, and a two-year scholarship to the Pasadena Playhouse College of Theatre Arts for the senior who is adjudged most worthy by the Torrance faculty.

Miss Margaret Blair, of Kingsdon, Ont., Can., is visiting at the Smiths, 17025 Faysmith. Mrs. Blair was a co-worker of Mrs. Smith. This family spent a week-end in San Bernardino seeing the Chicago White Sox play the St. Louis Browns in a fast-moving game of baseball. The entire family is sporting a beautiful sunburn!

Plans for the North Torrance Elementary PTA Room Mothers Dinner to be held at McMaster Hall April 22 at 6:30 p.m. got under way with a meeting at this reporter's home Tuesday, March 24, with room mothers chairmen joining in a tribute to mothers who have baked the cakes and cookies for so many boys and girls throughout the year.

Everything was in order for a neighborhood hayride this week, but the boys and girls gathered only to find that they had forgotten to order the horses! Nevertheless, the folks enjoyed themselves playing games and dancing at the Mayers home, and big sister Sue Mayers, with the help of Diane Holecheck, served cookies and punch to those who would be hayriders which included Paul Clayton Jr., Gary Gorchester, Becky Ross, Ross Groves, Diana Holecheck, and Sonja Pesola.

Roy Dudley, 17106 Faysmith, has returned home after a business trip to New York and Washington, D. C. Excitement ran high as this family received into the group a new nephew named Joseph Scott Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haas and Mrs. Hammel, 17020 Faysmith, spent a Sunday at San Pedro pier watching the boats dock. The Albert Pesolas, of 47030 Faysmith, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCordle in Costa Mesa, Mr. Pesola and Mrs. McCordle were classmates in Hibbing, Minn.

Mrs. Ruth Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Day, and son Jackie attended the International Flower Show at Inglewood and came away elated at the gorgeous array of flowers from every land and the breathtaking landscapes which were objects of art! Speaking of art, they also spent some time sewing the collection of 50 or more pictures of the famous Grandma Moses. These rural scenes proved most popular with the crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haas and Mrs. Hammel, 17020 Faysmith, spent a Sunday at San Pedro pier watching the boats dock. The Albert Pesolas, of 47030 Faysmith, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCordle in Costa Mesa, Mr. Pesola and Mrs. McCordle were classmates in Hibbing, Minn.

The Campfire Girls are collecting coat hangers and will be out all week on this project. This should be a way to clean out the closet and at the same time do a good turn to these hardworking girls.

The Mike Hardins, 17019 Crenshaw, motored to Hanford this week to visit Mrs. Hardin's father, who has been ill.

"Surprise, surprise!" These words rang through the Beaudwin home, 17029 Faysmith this week, as 12 boys and girls gathered in honor of Richard, Games were played and were followed by dancing. A statue dedicated Michael Deasey and Sonja Pesola a prize for first place. Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Smith assisted in serving the refreshments to the crowd which included Diane Holecheck, Darlene Holecheck, Ross Groves, Carole Atkins, Sonja Pesola, Paul Dudley, Sue Dudley, Sharon Pietsmeyer, Richard Beaudwin, Karla Siegrist, Richard Hoffmann, and Michael Deasey.

Happy birthday to Linda Wilder, 17512 Patronella, who had a party in honor of her fifth birthday this week. Also to Bobby Benard, 17503 Patronella, who had a real Easter party in honor of his fourth birthday. He presented all the guests with chocolate bunnies, balloons, and popicles. What could delight a four-year-old more than these things?

LoAnn Reason, 1228 W. 178th Pl., very popular among the diaper set, celebrated her first birthday March 14, but the party was one that would've made a grown-up envious! The huge yellow and blue chiffon cake was loaded with pink rosebuds and one candle. Hats and balloons were everywhere as the following is a list of "Happy Birthday": Danny, Connie, and Sharon Dockings, John and Roxann Reason, Caren Schentz, and Randy Buss.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fannon, up Cerise way, had a big weekend at Las Vegas. Said Mrs. Fannon: "It was a most interesting experience." Yes, I understand it can be just that!

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cortez, 17516 Cerise, entertained a small group of friends at a cocktail party this Saturday before attending the semi-formal dance of the Southern California Engineers at the Inglewood Country Club. Those guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lew Krider, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Avalos, Mr. and Mrs. Ken West, Mrs. Fred

The Alpha Society will have an unusual stork shower at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Zeller, 17035 Atkinson, on the ninth of April. Articles for a missionary's baby in Japan will be boxed for shipping. Articles for a forthcoming bazaar will also be collected.

As you color the eggs and place them in the gay baskets, put the last stitches in the new garments to be worn this Sunday morning, may the joyous promise of this Easter Day and Mrs. Ken West, Mrs. Fred

New El Camino Library Nearly Ready for Use

With the new library building nearing completion, El Camino College Librarian Helen Rodgers and Business Manager Carl Artwedson have announced plans to move in during the middle of April. Landscaping of the area around the new library, Artwedson said, began during the latter part of March. The final installation of some of the library furniture and the stacks and shelves for the books remained as the last things to be done before the library is ready for occupancy. The library will probably be out of service for part of a week while the move is made, Artwedson added.

With Easter just around the corner, busy mothers have been sewing little dresses and suits. The Easter parade in any vicinity is much looked forward to by the small fry. The adults' thoughts are on another trend, however, and many groups are preparing early morning worship and many extra features at the various churches. The Foursquare Gospel at 174th and Crenshaw has organized, under the leadership of David Hodges, a teen-age choir. The group will present to the congregation at the morning service "First Easter," a story in song. Those included in choir are Wilbert Beddo, Gloria Sanders, Marilyn Patton Diane Hodges, Elorene Pivaroroff, David Pivaroroff, Ronald McCracken, Teddy Byers, David Babbitt, Barton Davidson, Daniel Pivaroroff, Dick Patton, Dale Patton, Leola Pierce, Joan Sprunk and Mr. Vaught.
