Church Members Break Ground For New Edifice

While members of the church, civic, and community leaders looked on, more than a dozen shovels bit into the earth at Onrado and Felbar Sunday noon in official groundbreaking ceremonies for the new First Christian Church edifice.

Conducting the litany for the services was Rev. Rival Hawkins, director of Christian education for Southern California. He was assisted by Rev. Cecil J. England, pastor of the church, and Joe Lukes, chairman of the church board.

Speaking on behalf of the city and the community were Robert L. Flomert Jr., president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce; A. E. Lloyd, secretary of the City Planning Commission; and Ralph Schmidt, president of the Torrance Gardens and Plaza Homeowners Assoc.

The new church edifice will rise on a 2½-acre site adjacent to the new parsonage which members of the church built last year. The site is on the south-west corner of Torrance Plaza.

Edison Company Hurls Charges At Local 47

In a statements commenting upon a complaint based on charges by Local 47, IBEW-AFL that Southern California Edison Company would not bargain collectively, Edison officials yesterday said that, "the Company has been, is now, and will continue to be, ready to renew the normal processes of collective bargaining in good faith whenever conditions are restored which make those processes possible."

Company further states, "the strike against the public safety, this Union now tries to shift the blame, and cries that those against whom they unleashed the forces of hatred and violence, are unfair, because they will not do that which the Union has thus made impossible. The Company is happy to have an examination of the question of the fairness and propriety of the conduct of all the parties involved in this strike."
