

POTATO CHIP CREW . . . Yolanda Goldsmith hands the special YWCA package of Bell Brand potato chips to a shopper at Jim Dandy Market, Mrs. Eugene Snyder, 1022 Teri Ave., while Peggy Benton looks on. The two girls joined other Y-teens in opening the sale in local markets Friday. They will continue selling the chips next Friday and Saturday, in conjunction with National YWCA week, which opened today and will end the 25th. During the sale, the manufacturer's share of the profit will be turned over to the YW, to be used for camp and conference funds not provided by Community Chest funds. Other girls who worked in the markets this week-end were Linda Lane, Marian Smith, Gerry Lee, Marva Jones, Sharon Kirks, Lita Brady, Judy Vanderpool, Elizabeth Hedgecock, Kathie Curtis, Nancy Humphreys, Jill Moore, Maurine Bradford, Shirley Reed, Pat Smith, Sharon Moser, Ailee Shackelford, Mary Walker, Mary Hawkins, Betty Rusch, Judy Bristol, Lorene Ledwidge, Frances Frame, Carmelita Balligad, Judy Adams, Sally Cordes, Charlotte Kudlemyer, Mary Glen McCaffery, Betty Eassa, Carolyn Chapman, Doreen McKee, Margaret Rushfelt, Linda Thistle, Fay Mallenhan, and Ann Sackman.

Church Services To Open YW Week Here Today

National YWCA week will open today in Torrance with special church services to be attended by all members of the group, according to Mrs. Otis Blackstone, publicity chairman.

Each member also is asked to take two others with her to church," Mrs. Blackstone said.

Another highlight of the week here will be a special membership enrollment kickoff next Tuesday, Apr. 21, at 10 a. m. at the Y building, 2320 W. Carson. The meeting will serve to stimulate interest in enrollment, to offer

YWCA WEEK SLATE
 April 19—YWCA day in the churches.
 Apr. 19-25—Membership enrollment.
 Apr. 20—San Pedro kickoff, 12:30 p. m.
 Apr. 21—Torrance kickoff, 10 a. m.
 Apr. 17-25—Potato Chip Sale to benefit Y.
 Apr. 22—International Tea, 1 to 4 p. m.

instructions for the drive, and to distribute kits and prospect slips, Mrs. Levy, membership chairman, said.

Unlike many membership efforts, this is not a fund-raising drive as the operating budget for the Y is provided by the Community Chest, but it is an effort to gain the support of the community for the local association, Mrs. Levy said.

Membership is open to all women and girls in the community. The adult membership fee is $2 per year, and electoral members joining immediately may vote in the forthcoming election for the Torrance Branch Committee as well as for the Harbor District Board of Directors, the chairman continued.

Climaxing the week's activities will be the annual International Tea, to be held at the San Pedro YWCA, 437 W. Ninth St. Wednesday, Apr. 22, 1 to 4 p. m. Exhibits from more than a dozen countries will be on display, and a short program representing many nationalities will be presented. Delicacies from foreign countries will be on the refreshment menu.

In charge of table decorations for the affair are Mrs. George Kanai and a group of Japanese war brides.

SLATE CARD PARTY

Torrance Royal Neighbors will hold an 8 o'clock card party next Tuesday evening, Apr. 21, at the Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. Refreshments will be served following card play.

Mrs. Cora Hill is in charge of arrangements for the event.

Juniors, Friends To Dine, Dance In Pastel Setting

"Pastels for Spring," featuring a chain of yellow daisies will be the decoration theme at the Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave., next Wednesday evening, Apr. 22, when the Junior Woman's Club holds its annual smorgasbord dinner-dance.

Dancing to the music of Les Trosnier and his orchestra will follow the 7 to 8:30 o'clock dinner. A series of mixers, including a broom dance, the Virginia Reel, and Paul Jones, is planned, according to Mrs. Robert Waddell, general chairman.

Junior and senior club members and their friends are invited to the affair. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. C. E. Adams at Torrance 3080-J, or Mrs. E. W. Eckert at Torrance 3654-W.

Decorations are being arranged by Mesdames R. E. Beecher and William Montgomery. Other committee members include Mesdames J. Helphand, Coke bar; Lester King, John Cooper, J. W. Day, George Stevens, Montgomery, Fred, E. Smith, and William E. Grubbs, food.

MR. AND MRS. GARRETT EUSTICE Celebrate 25th wedding anniversary

Seaside Couple Celebrates Silver Wedding Anniversary

Twenty-five-year-wed Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Eustice, 5320 Binde-wald Rd., Seaside Ranchos, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Friday night by entertaining a group of relatives and close friends at dinner at the Fort Washington Room in the Fish Shanty.

The Eustices, newcomers to Torrance, were wed at the Christian Church in Santa Ana. They moved here last Sept. 4 after residing 16 years in southwest Los Angeles.

Mrs. Eustice (Gertrude) is a dental assistant at Harbor General Hospital, while her husband is employed by Pacific Electric. The couple have three children, Garrett, IV, recently discharged from the U.S. Army; Mrs. Anne Gaine; and Mrs. Claire Duncan.

Garrett, Mrs. Gaine, and her small daughter, Suzette, make of their home with their parents, while Mrs. Duncan resides at Norwalk.

For the anniversary fete, Mrs. Eustice chose a waltz-length pink gown with white lace overskirt and a corsage of roses and feather carnations.

A miniature bride and groom and figure "25" topped the three-tiered cake, which was iced in white and decorated with miniature pale pink roses; Snaps, pink delight roses, pink elfies, and sweet peas carried out the pastel color scheme in a center bouquet.

Invited to the affair were Mrs. Mrs. L. M. Jeffers of Santa Monica; Mr. and Mrs. John Stanley, also of Santa Monica; Mr. and Mrs. M. Jeffers of West Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Steven Chase and family of San Fernando; "Pappy" Chase of San Fernando; Mrs. E. E. Petty and mother of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Jean Duncan of Norwalk; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Duncan of Norwalk; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Clark of Silver Lake; and the honored couple's three children.

Three babies first saw the light of day at the hospital on Apr. 13.

Born at 10:36 a. m. was 6 lb. 3 1/2 oz. Kathleen Rose, first child of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Walton, 4043 W. 177th St. Father is a plumber with Silverberg Plumbing, Mr. and Mrs. George Walton of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Rose Noble of Culver City; and Daniel Sepulveda of N. Redondo Beach are grandparents.

Scott Daniel, 6 lb. 7 1/2 oz. son of the Boyd D. McDougalls, 17009 Falda Ave., arrived at 8:44 a. m. He has one brother, Arthur Glenn Hartzell, 9. Father is employed at L. A. Cement Gun Inc.; Mrs. Hattie H. McDougall of Los Angeles is the paternal grandmother.

A 7:15 p. m. arrival was Leslie Howard, second child of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Sumpter, 1635 W. 205th St. The 8 lb. 9 1/2 oz. boy, whose father is a mailman at the local post office, has one sister, Linda Sumpter, 4 1/2. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. David Werner, Canoga Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sumpter of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Harold D. Schipper, employee at National Supply Co., and his wife, who live in Lomita, now are parents of their second son, Phil Allen. The new arrival weighed 8 lbs. 12 1/2 oz. when born at 2:25 a. m., Apr. 11. He joins a two-year-old brother, Dan Jeffery, Messrs. and Mesdames William Schipper of Euclid, Minn., and Odolan Casavan of Lomita are grandparents.

The Frederick V. Springs, Jr., who live at 23750's Pennsylvania Ave., are announcing the arrival of 7 lb. 8 oz. Michael Frederick, born at 2:24 a. m. Apr. 10, the baby joins a 23-month-old sister, Lynn Gayle. Father is an electrician for the Electrical Workers Union, local No. 111; Messrs. and Mesdames Gale Whitacre, 2247 W. 238th St.; and F. V. Springs Sr. of Long Beach are grandparents.

ATTEND DISTRICT MEET
 Representing Torrance High School PTA at the 42nd annual convention of First District PTA in Pasadena Thursday were Mesdames I. O. Kastin, L. M. Nash, Lee Flankin, F. W. Lane, D. Boone Kiangs, and Elmer S. Moon.

FIVE ROOM Rambler
 DESIGN NO. 3142

This modern rambler is the newest home to be added to our ever-growing Weyerhaeuser 4-Square Home Building Service.

Come in and see the floor plan of this pleasant home with its five brightly lighted rooms and practical breezeway. Also ask to see the many other designs in the Service. You will find a wide variety of styles and room arrangements.

Every home in this Service is architect-designed and Weyerhaeuser-engineered... assurance of greater value for your building dollar. Blueprints are available for all designs.

A. ROSSMAN MILL AND LUMBER CO.
 WILMINGTON 200 Bayview — TE. 4-1171
 SAN PEDRO 403 W. 21st — TE. 2-7206
 LONG BEACH 6980 Cherry LB 2-1239 — MEteaff 3-1169

Greeting Card Hat Wins First Prize in Trio Parade

Lola Neilson walked off with first prize in Trio Rebekah Lodge's Easter Bonnet Parade Wednesday of last week for a hat made of cheery Easter greeting cards. Second prize was won by Nellie Farquhar, who wore an Easter basket on her head.

The stlye show followed lodge ceremonies keyed by the observance of Homecoming. During the business session, Gertrude Kastrop, Emma Applin, and Ada Anderson were elected to represent Trio at the Rebekah Assembly at Fresno.

Spring flowers, arranged by Mrs. Kastrop, decorated the banquet hall for the refreshment hour. An egg gaily decorated with Easter friills was at each place setting, and cupcakes served with jello were baked and decorated to resemble Easter baskets.

Mary Smith, junior past noble at the next Trio meeting, to be held Wednesday, Apr. 22, at the California Hall in Lomita. The 134th anniversary of Odd Fellows also will be celebrated.

E. MOONS HAVE NEW GRANDSON

Announcing the arrival of a new grandson, Daniel Earl Moon Jr., are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Moon, 1024 1/2 Amapola Ave.

The baby boy, who weighed 7 lbs. 6 1/2 oz. when he arrived Friday morning, 7:10 o'clock, at the Corona Naval Hospital, is the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Earl Moon, residents of Long Beach.

Father, a graduate of Torrance High School and the University of Redlands, is now stationed at the Los Alamitos Naval Training Center.

Bettie Thomas Studios
 1215 CRENSHAW BLVD. PHONE 2843

CANDIDATES FOR YWCA POSTS TOLD

Ballots for the annual election of the Torrance Branch Committee on Administration of the Harbor District YWCA are being mailed now, according to Mrs. Otis Blackstone, public relations director.

Eight candidates will be competing for five offices, she said. They are Mesdames Hannah Armstrong, Miles Booth, Darwin Parrish, W. S. Toombs, William A. Herrmann, John L. Stephens, and Helene Scott, and Miss Nell Coburn.

Candidates for the nominating committee are Mesdames H. P. Jensen, Grover C. Van Dewater, W. O. Clausing, E. E. Clayton, W. E. Walton, A. E. Palmer, Arvol Smith, and M. M. Schwab. Five of this group will be elected.

Soroptimists Hold Parties For Eligibles in Torrance

Several eligible women in Torrance and Gardena were invited to the home of Mrs. Edith Ennis, 16907 Western Ave., Gardena, Thursday evening to hear plans for the organization of a Soroptimist Club in this area.

The same group, and other eligibles who will be contacted in the interim, will meet again next Thursday evening, Apr. 23, 7:30 o'clock, at 1932 Pacific Coast Hwy., Lomita. Directing organization plans is Mrs. Earnestine Mannatt, extension committee chairman of the Harbor District Soroptimists. Torrance women aiding her are Mrs. Winona Ellis and Miss Margaret Reff. Other principals on the committee are Mesdames Edna Whitlow, Edith Walther, Edith Carragher, and Marion Young, president of the Harbor club.

"It is hoped that plans will be complete so we may hold a charter party for the new club in May," Mrs. Mannatt said.

PLANS AUGUST WEDDING . . . Miss Maureen Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Matthews, 3336 Crickelwood St. and Aramis Dandoy, son of the Alphonse Lambriggers, 2026 W. 238th St., Lomita, have set Aug. 2 as their wedding date. Miss Matthews will graduate from Torrance High School in June. Her fiance, a graduate of Torrance High School, is now attending the University of Southern California, where he is active in football.

Noted Doctor To Tell of Sound Nerves

Dr. Maurine W. Sellstrom, noted author, adult educator, and counselor for youth groups, will continue her current lecture series on family life education to-morrow morning, 9:30 o'clock, at the lecture room of the city library.

Dr. Sellstrom's talk, third in the Torrance Council PTA-Torrance School of Adult Education sponsored series, is titled, "Building Sound Nerves." She previously has spoken on "Family Life Education for the Young Child" and "Preparing the Child for Adolescence."

Final topic, to be presented Monday morning, Apr. 27, at the same locale, is "Quarreling and Arguing."

The lecture is open to the public without charge.

Noted Doctor To Tell of Sound Nerves

Dr. Maurine W. Sellstrom, noted author, adult educator, and counselor for youth groups, will continue her current lecture series on family life education to-morrow morning, 9:30 o'clock, at the lecture room of the city library.

Another innovation in the Sunday program will be several one-act plays to be staged by such representative little theater groups as the Palos Verdes Players.

ARTS EXHIBIT
 For the three days of the festival, the auditorium and music building will be transformed by an exhibit of the best this region has to offer in paintings, ceramics, flowers, photographs, and the like, the conductor said. This portion of the festival is under the chair-

HANNIBAL Hits On Plan
 I've travelled far and Need a place To house my steed and me

The handy YELLOW PAGES Will tell me whom To see

YOU'LL FIND IT FAST IN THE YELLOW PAGES
 Used by 9 out of 10 people as a guide to those who sell or serve

Pacific Telephone

For Motor Courts It pays to look In the 'Classified' part Of your Telephone Book