

THE NINETY AND NINE

Deep Know My Voice

"THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT." Of course that is one of the high faiths of all literature. We know that we can depend upon the Good Shepherd. Though the night be dark and the way rough and thorny, He will leave the 'ninety and nine' and go after the lost one. That gives every one of us a sense of worth and a basis for hope.

THERE is the opposite side of our faith. We must know the Shepherd's voice. Do we listen for the voice of Him who can be trusted or to the voice of the obstructionist? Lukewarm church people have allowed the worldly to criticize churches, advertise vice, ostracize preachers, minimize righteousness and practically idolize the ungodly. Our Shepherd expects us to be faithful... to go out after those who have wandered, those who have no church home. Then when storms break upon us, when we cannot see the way... even then we shall not go astray; for He said, "My Sheep Know My Voice and They Follow Me."

27 Palos Verdes Students Return From U.S. Tour

Arriving by American Airlines Thursday morning at Los Angeles International Airport were twenty-seven students and four faculty members of Palos Verdes College, returning to their Rolling Hills campus after three weeks of travel-study on a national scope.

Traveling by air, the students left Los Angeles on Sunday, March 29th, with the first stop at Chicago where they spent four days studying the industry, art, and social science aspects of that major city.

On April 3rd the group enplaned for Washington, D. C., where an impressive list of appointments awaited them. Here the students concentrated on government and international relations. Among the people who met with the students were Justice Harold Burton of the Supreme Court; Vice President Nixon; Under Secretary of the Navy Charles Thomas; Nils Lenartson; assistant to the secretary of the treasury; Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, federal security administrator, whose office was raised to cabinet status the day they talked with her; Representative Craig Hosmer; and Luther Evans, librarian of Congress. Of unusual interest was attendance at a Mohammedan service at the Mosque in Washington, following an explanation by Dr. Mahmud Hubballah, director of the Islamic Center.

During their week in New York the College spent the days in lectures, museums, and galleries, while evenings were divided between appointments and free time during which most of the students attended dramatic and musical events.

Each student was assigned an individual project for the trip, and will spend the balance of the week organizing accumulated material and writing a paper which must be submitted by the time campus classes reconvene on Monday.

SP Adjusts Train Schedules To Fit Daylight Saving

While trains will continue to operate on Standard Time under federal law, Southern Pacific will adjust schedules of most of its local passenger trains having terminals within the state to conform to California Daylight Saving Time on April 26, it was stated here this week by Kenneth L. Anderson, S. P. agent.

For example, the Lark will leave Los Angeles for San Francisco at 8 p.m. Standard Time, and the Coast Daylight at 7:15 a.m. Standard Time, so that departures under Daylight Saving Time—an hour later than Standard—will be that to which travelers are accustomed.

Because of connections with trains from Portland, Ore., and other Northwestern cities, the southbound Owl will continue to arrive in Los Angeles from San Francisco at 10:45 a.m. Standard Time, or 11:45 a.m. Daylight Time.

Transcontinental Southern Pacific passenger trains will remain on their present Standard Time departure hours for Chicago and New Orleans.

Arrival time of several west-bound trains will be advanced April 26. The Imperial will arrive in Los Angeles from Chicago at 8 a.m. Standard Time, instead of 6:45 a.m. The Argonaut will arrive from New Orleans at 2:50 p.m. instead of 3:45 p.m. and the Sunset Limited at 4:15 p.m. instead of 4:30 p.m. Standard Time.
