Volunteers Slate Monday Kick-Off For Polio Drive

Volunteer workers for the coming Sister Kenny Polio Drive will hold their kick-off meeting next Monday night, Apr. 27, at 7 o'clock at Fern Ave. School, Mrs. H. J. Osborne, Torrance chairman, announced this week. A film on polio will be shown, and the chairman will deliver kits and instructions to her aides. Proceeds of the drive, to begin here on May 4, will be used to build a new wing at the Sister Kenny Polio Hospital in El Monte. The new structure will be a memorial to Sister Kenny. "This is the first time we have had an organized drive for this fund in Torrance," Mrs. Osborne said, "and we are hoping for a generous response from local citizens." Anyone interested in giving their time during the campaign is invited to attend the Monday meeting, the chairman said. Women also may volunteer their services by contacting her at Torrance 3754-J.

Baptist Group Seats Leaders PTA SELECTS CHAIRMEN

In keeping with the theme for this year, "Sing Unto the Lord a New Song; All the Earth," Mrs. Roy Muncy took office as president of the Women's Baptist Mission Society at last Thursday's installation ceremonies. Rites were conducted by Mrs. Sherman Halsey of Long Beach. Mrs. Muncy will be assisted by Mesdames Meade Ferguson, first vice-president; K. W. Knowles, vice president of Christian service; Mrs. Maek Monroe, missions vice-president; J. W. Dykes, vice-president of Christian training; Daniel Pierson, vice president of missionary and stewardship education; William Berard, vice-president of business and professional women; Chester Williams, secretary; and H. D. Revelle, treasurer. Chairmen selected include Mesdames Bert Scott, publicity; C. C. Cash, literature; E. W. Holzclaw, White Cross; Charles French, Christian social relations; William Bourne, leader.

Selection of committee chairmen highlighted the first business session of the newly-formed El Nido PTA last week. Named as leaders were Mesdames Ella Killian, hospitality; Ernest Pena, ways and means; Leonard Adams, room representative; Ray Crane, membership; Samuel Moore, finance and budget; Vincent Mazarro, program; and Albert Martin, publicity and records. A film and talk presented by Walter Rehboldt, curriculum coordinator for Torrance schools, on how parents can help children learn to read featured the program. Robert Hise, family life education. R. A. Tuck, reading; Wentzel Smith, missionary and stewardship education for girls; A. R. Thistle, missionary and stewardship education for children; and Alta Clemens, student counselor. Following the ceremonies, the Friendship Circle hosted a noon potluck luncheon.
