Gam' Slated Next Week-end
Warner Claims San Jose Bride; Couple Enroute To Scott Air Base In Illinois

Next week-end, May 1, 2 and 3, approximately 600 Mariner Girl Scouts will gather at Lake Los Angeles in Lake Park, Venice for their annual program of troop camping and participating in swimming and boating events.
 The week-end meeting, or "Gam" will include sailing, rowing, canoeing, paddle board, swimming, life-saving, first aid, bell time and watches, knots, splicing, and semaphore.
 Sophomores at Torrance High who are Mariners are Gerry Hawkins, whose mother, Mrs. Douglas M. Hawkins, is skipper of their ship, the Sea Mate; Dee Gison, Eleanor Baxillus, and Janice Hood, whose ship is the Islander.
 The Airman Third Class, son of the Carl S. Warners, 1452 El Prado and his bride, the former Miss Virginia Ann Null of San Jose, will make their home in Illinois while he is stationed at the Scott base. The young couple had originally planned to marry on Memorial Day, but moved the wedding date up when the groom was transferred from Parks Air Force Base to the Illinois field.
 For the 4 o'clock rites, Miss Null, given in marriage by her father, L. D. Null, chose a nylon tulle ballet-length gown. An ice blue Juliet cap held her nylon tulle veil in place, and she carried five baby orchids and lilies of the valley centered on a white prayer book.
 Members of the bridal entourage wore identical costumes of powder blue taffeta with matching nylon tulle overskirts and carried identical bouquets of yellow lilies.
 Mrs. Michael Mommick attended as matron of honor, while Mrs. Douglas Null, Miss Jane Moore, and Mrs. Harry Kane were bridesmaids.

ECC Women Slate Monday Fashion Show

El Camino College's women students and their guests will be treated to a spring fashion show next Monday, May 4, in the Campus Center, Barbara Lauderbaugh, Associated Women Student president, said yesterday.
 The event, to which all interested women in the community are invited, will be held from 2 to 4 p.m., will feature dresses from Mari Lyn's Dress Shop in Torrance.
 Miss Karen Dean, daughter of the Carl Deans, 2564 Torrance Blvd., will be among the models showing the spring fashions. Also taking part in the style parade will be Misses Janelle Short of Redondo Beach; Beverly Harmon of Gardena; Margaret Hall of Lawndale; Sandra Gaugh of Inglewood; Beverly Clement of Redondo Beach; Barbara Ellis of Inglewood; and Midge Kuhn of Manhattan Beach.

Nearly 1000 artists, actors, musicians, and dancers from Torrance, Lomita, Palos Verdes, South Bay, and Harbor cities will take an active part in the Fifth Annual May Festival of Arts May 8, 9, and 10 at the Redondo Union High School.
 During the three days of the festival, the auditorium and music building will be filled with exhibits of paintings, ceramics, flowers, and photographs, but special dance, orchestral, and choral programs will headline the event, according to Elyse Aehe, conductor of the sponsoring group, the South Bay Civic Symphony.
CHILDREN'S BALLET
 The dance program, to be presented Saturday, May 9, will feature a ballet performed by 95 children of this area, numbers by pupils at the Stover Lane Dance Studio of Hollywood Riviera, and presentations by dance students of Jan Darian, formerly of Torrance.
 Elyse Aehe will conduct the 55-member symphony in the music of Beethoven, Saint Saens, Rossini, Strauss, and Lehar.
 Sunday's program will combine the talents of actors and singers, featuring one-act plays presented by such representative groups as the Palos Verdes Little Theater, and musical selections by at least twelve choruses and choirs in this area, the conductor said.

PRIZE-WINNING PLAY
 In the drama spotlight will be Torrance High School students presenting the play which won them first prize this year at the Pasadena Playhouse, "Sunday Costs Five Pesos."
 The Torrance High School A Cappella Choir under the direction of Walter Silke, will take a musical spotlight. Other choral groups to perform are the First Methodist Church Choir, led by S. Earle Peterson and accompanied by Miss Pat Clere; the Narbonne High School Girls Glee Club; and the El Camino College Community Chorus, directed by Neil Hill.
 Each chorus will sing several selections under its individual leader. The singing groups then will combine their talents in two numbers led by Dr. William Raymond Kendall, dean of the School of Music at the University of Southern California.
 Miss Barbara Mablin, director of Los Camereros, who also will take part in the Choral Festival, was responsible for securing the services of Dr. Kendall.
SOLOISTS TOLD
 Piano solos by Miss Mickey Van Deventer and Richard C. Beal, and a violin solo by Bells Embury also will highlight Sunday's program.
 The entire festival is open to the public without charge.

Plan May Dance To Raise Funds for Cancer Society

Continuing the popular idea of staging social affairs to benefit the current cancer drive, Los Vecinas' Women's Club and the Hollywood Riviera Sportsman's Club are joining forces to sponsor a May 30 dance at the Hollywood Riviera Clubhouse.
 Movie and television celebrities will be on hand to present a show to climax the evening's activities, which will begin at 9 o'clock, according to Chairman Pat Patrinsky.
 Others on the executive committee planning the event are Will Zens, John Kinsey, Mrs. S. Paul Roeltger, and Mrs. Louis Regan.
 Tickets at $1 each are available through service clubs, downtown stores and restaurants. They also may be obtained by contacting Oscar Lundstrom at Frontier 2-43, from any member of the sponsoring clubs, or at the door the night of the dance. All proceeds will be turned over to the American Cancer Society.

NEW LECTURE SERIES TO START TUESDAY
 "A Greater Understanding of Human Nature" is the theme of a new series of six lectures to be sponsored by the Compton Counseling Service.
 First lecture, "Does Your Mind Affect Your Body?" is scheduled for Tuesday, May 5, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., at the Service headquarters. A question and answer period will follow the talk by Mrs. Freida Brunner Tanner, R. N., A. B., of Huntington Park.
 Lectures to follow are "How to Handle Worry" on May 12; "Are You Emotionally Honest?" on May 19; "How to Get Along with Difficult People" on May 26; "The Knew How of System and Order" on June 2; and "Are You Emotionally Immature?" on June 9.

SPEAKERS AVAILABLE
 Local PTA groups, women's clubs, service organizations, and church groups who wish to secure speakers on human relations may make arrangements by calling the Compton Counseling Service, Newmark 2-8312, or the Redondo Beach Extension, Frontier 5-3016.
