Why Make Teen Age Girls Play in Rain In Gym Clothes, Mother Demands

Editor:
The state requires physical education for all high-school students. Does it also require teenage girls with colds to don their gym shorts and short-sleeved blouses plus cloth tennis shoes to play out in the rain while the teacher stands around with a raincoat on? And, at the hour of 8:15 a.m. at that. Seems rather odd to me not to mention the fact it makes me pretty darn mad. Is that any way to protect the health of our girls who are at a dangerous age for T. B. anyway?

Sincerely,
Signed by: A constant reader with a teenage daughter who did this at Torrance High School, so please, what's the angle? Have I a right to get a bit peevish or have I not. Please do not use my name, Mrs. H. W.

Youth Band

gram will be two other famous musicians, Clarence Sawhill, director of bands at UCLA and president of the American College Band Directors Association, who will be guest conductor, and Dr. Lucien Cailliet, well-known composer, conductor, and arranger, who will hear the band play two of his latest transcriptions, the "Italian in Algiers" and "Hansel and Gretel" overtures, plus his special arrangement of "Lady of Spain."

Dr. Cailliet spent many years as clarinetist and chief arranger for Leopold Stokowski and the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra. He now lives in Pacific Hills and devotes most of his time to writing music for motion pictures and composing and arranging for publication.

Sawhill will be appearing for the second time as guest conductor of the local youth band. The program will start at 8:15 p.m. and admission is $1.

Carl Larsen Winner Of National Contest

High School Senior Carl Larsen was declared winner of the National Supply Management Club's annual essay contest this week and was presented with a $200 scholarship and a Certificate of Scholarship at a special luncheon at the local plant Thursday noon.

Announcing the award was Homer St. Martin, president of the local management club, and Clyde Field, scholarship chairman of the group.

The essay, 600 words on the theme, "What Industry Can Do for Education," was selected from an entry of seven.

Also submitting essays were Marce Wright, Frances Frame, Dan Mayers, Kazuko Hasegawa, Dave Parton, and Mariene Schooley.

Judges Listed
Judging the essays were Matt Libeu, Don Richards, Jim Abraham, George Hatfield, and Field.

"The entries were all good, and selecting the top one was a difficult assignment," Field said.

Larsen will now compete in Zone "A" contests sponsored by the National Association of Foremen in Los Angeles Thursday. He will sit with 15 other management club winners from San Diego to Santa Barbara and write on a topic to be given them at the luncheon meeting at the Rodger Young Auditorium. The winner will be announced at the luncheon, according to Field.

Winner Thursday will receive a $500 contract.

Last year's winner in Torrance was, William L. Wilcox who went on to win the Zone competition.

Attending the luncheon Thursday with Larsen were High School Principal Bruce Wagner Jr., and Boys Counselor Ivan Malm.

Redistricting

boundaries of the supervisorial districts have been made since 1938. Rapid population increases outside the metropolitan Los Angeles area during recent years have brought heavy growth in the three districts.

If the redistricting is to be accomplished, the plan must be submitted by July 1, since law requires that any shift in district boundaries must take place one year after a general election.

Tartar Teen Talk

By JUDI REID

By JUDI REID
The annual Tartar Knight convention was held last week-end at Hemet, Calif. The guys really enjoyed the swell time they had. Bob Kulp and John Sousa reported that between olive fights and trips to Palm Springs many new acquaintances were made.

Wednesday at the T.H.S. auditorium the Boys League viewed a really good ad call. Several acts were performed and a play, "Dan McGrew," was given. The cast, Harry Baldwin, Linda Lawton, Lenis Smith and Richard Knappenberger did a swell job and the guys really enjoyed it.

The TNT staff has unanimously picked Larry Roy as their choice of athlete of the year from T.H.S. Larry, who is a terrific star of football, basketball, track and baseball, has brought many honors to Torrance. This is the first year the paper has given this award and everyone agrees they really picked the right guy.

The drama department of T.H.S. has really been busy this semester. They have planned another play which will be presented at an aud call tomorrow. The all-star cast of Mike Kaseno, Knappy, De Wayne Lund, Alan Rainwater, Susie Snyder, Ronnie Jacquin, and Dennis Smith, promise to make "The Crisco Kid," a wonderful show.

Carl Larson was named winner of the essay contest sponsored by the National Supply Company. Carl, one of Torrance's most brilliant students, won a certificate, a check for $200 and the eligibility to enter the contest finals for a prize of $500. Good luck, Carl!

The site for the Junior Senior Prom has been decided on. The place, El Camino, and the date June 5. The junior class cabinet is really working to make this the best prom Torrance has ever had.

Yes, there are still sports at T.H.S! There are still teams and games, and victories, that is, but where are the rooters? Have you lost all your spirit, Tartars?

Seminares Quartet Visits WALTERIA Baptist Church

The Seminares, a quartet of young men studying for the ministry in the Los Angeles Baptist seminary, will visit the First Fundamental Baptist church, Park and Newton, Walteria, tonight where they will offer a group of sacred songs and tell their experiences in entering the Christian ministry.

No admission will be charged and the public is invited.

JOHN REES
To Speak on Communism

Baptist Church To Hear Speaker

Vidas Fritskevicius came to the United States as a displaced person in 1949, a refugee from Lithuania.

After arriving here, he decided that his tongue-twisting name would have to go, so now, as plain John Rees, he is traveling about on a lecture tour, urging everyone to join in a fight against Communism, after his experiences behind the Iron Curtain.

Friday night, May 8, Rees will speak at the Brotherhood dinner at the First Baptist Church, at 7:30 o'clock. Reservations for dinner are necessary, and for men only. Ladies are invited to the program. Dinner starts at 6:30 p.m. Reservations can be made by calling Torrance 1848J or 3084.

Rees is a well educated man, having a command of six languages, and comes to the Baptist group with numerous testimonials from various church and service groups who have previously heard him speak.
