

THE SQUIRREL CAGE

BY REID BUNDY

NOTES ON MUSCLES—American youngsters who emulate Popeye and build brawn the canned spinach will be reassured by the news that 72,403,056 cans of the muscle-making vegetable were packed last year by California canners—or so says a publicity release from the American Can Co.

SAILORS BEWARE—The main art of having your chest tattooed will still be strictly the mark of the sailor if officials of the Los Angeles City Council have their way. Last week the Councilmen turned down a request from the Board of Annual Regulation for an appropriation of $10,000 to tattoo dogs.

SOUTHERN COMFORT—In 1952, for the first time since records have been kept, there were no lynchings in the United States, according to the 1953 Yearbook of Peoples Encyclopedia.

FAITHFUL FANS—Members of the Walter G. Lynch Dodge-Plymouth agency in Redondo are avid stock car race fans. They attend the Carrell Speedway regularly to root for a friend, Marvin Panch, who drives a Dodge V-8 in stock car races for Dealer Tom Roody of Gardena. Panch has won races from Oakland to Phoenix, but he can't make the grade at Carrell. "Well, he'd have won today but for..." is the typical tenor of conversation as the Dodge fans leave the speedway. In keeping with their feelings, they have renamed the stretch of road from the speedway to Normandie Ave., "Alibi Alley."

TIME SAVERS—Daylight saving time, which went into effect last weekend, gave a lot of workers a little lawn-mowing light around their house after they got home from work. For one Torrance merchant, however, the idea of saving time went even further than a little daylight on the end of the day. He announced that a number of items would be on sale for a special price during "the week of April 22 to May 2." No "doubt the longest week of the year.

UNUSUAL WEATHER—Forest "Stew" Meyers, president of the Torrance Optimist Club, got a lesson in California climate last Wednesday at the circus, sponsored by his club. It is misty and raining during the afternoon, so he put his nearly new hat in the car to keep it from getting soaked up. Rain and all, he got a sunburn.

COMMERCIALISM—By-Laws of Rotary International, International service club of business and industrial leaders, permit membership in the organization to only one representative of each classification. One of the clubs in the organization was faced with a real meaty problem because of this rule. One of its members was a church bishop, and the club wanted to admit the minister

Kettler Knolls Residents Set For Jaycee Meet

Linking up their clothes and using the excuse to buy new ones are Ed and Mary Lou Karlow and Bob and Lorraine Stanton, who plan to attend the Jaycee convention in Santa Cruz May 7 through 10.

"Have your kids had the chicken pox or measles?" That is almost the customary greeting now instead of the old familiar "Hi, come on in" when you stop by to call on a friend for they seem to be making the rounds again. Among those who had or do have the chicken pox is Gordon Jones, who had to postpone his birthday party because he was so speckled with them; Gay Larsen, and Bobby Jobe. Measles have visited Rodney and Bobby Crawford, and are now with "Buzz" Otterstein.

Also celebrating his eighth birthday this past week-end was Otto Giese, son of Otto and Mary Giese, of 1833 Reynosa Dr. Otto invited Mickey Stittworth, Daniel Cunningham, Mark Vasquez and Gerald Troy to an outdoor lunch of hot dogs, baked beans and potato chips... and roasted marshmallows, too. After the boys ate their fill, they went to the movies to see all about that "Man From Planet X" then home again for the traditional birthday cake and ice cream. Otto received many lovely gifts and the boys really had a time for themselves.

Because friends mean so much to her, Teo Cunningham of Reynosa Dr. had a group of the "girls" in last Friday evening for a social evening while hubby Ken went bowling. The evening was spent chatting, and playing games, with prizes going to Claire Brown of Compton, and Mary Hroza. Those enjoying the pleasant company were Velma Lucas, Thelma Setzer, Mary Hroza, Dell Catina, Joy Voss, Marge Estes all of Torrance; Claire Brown of Compton and Alice Cole of Glendale.

Heard that the tacos luncheon that Circle No. 7 had as a money raising project last week at the home of Viola Goree on Huber St. was really delicious and quite a success.
