

Riviera, Seaside May Get Cancer Checking Point Through Dance Proceeds

Success of the forthcoming Cancer Benefit Dance will have a large bearing on whether or not a cancer checking point will be installed in the Hollywood Riviera-Seaside-Rancho area, Publicity Chairman Les Strobel announced this week.

If enough funds are obtained from the affair, to be held May 30 at the Hollywood Riviera Clubhouse, the cancer center will be established, he said.

Voluntary donations of $1 will entitle a person to participate in the benefit festivities, which will include acts by many celebrities of TV and movies. Frank Jenks of Redondo Beach, popular comedian of movies and television, will be master of ceremonies for the show.

Serving as chairman of the donation committee is Oscar Lundstrom. Tickets may be obtained by calling him at Frontiers 2-4165, from local service clubs, and at downtown stores and restaurants. Donations also will be accepted at the door the night of the dance.

Hollywood Riviera Sportsman's Club, under the chairmanship of Pat Patronsky, and Las Vecinas Woman's Club, under the direction of Mrs. Paul Roettgers, are co-sponsors of the charity event. Other members of the planning committee are George Aldrich, John Kinsey, Will Zens, and Mrs. Louis Regan.

Home Decorating Program Offered to Women's Clubs

Women's clubs of Torrance now are being offered a completely new home decorating program based on the how-to-do-it theme, Bill Harrold, local branch manager for the Sherwin-Williams Co., announced yesterday.

Entitled "The Easy Way To Be Sure About Color Harmony," the program is presented by one of the company's color stylists.

"It is a public service program available to women's clubs without obligation of any kind," Harrold said. "The color stylist briefly discusses the importance of the good use of color in the home, then shows the practical techniques of planning and carrying out attractive color schemes."

The program demonstrates how various companion colors react on each other, changing the color-personalities of the component shades. Similarly, different combinations of color determine the personality of rooms in which they are used.

"There is nothing mysterious about artistically good color in the home," Harrold said. "This program takes the guesswork out of color planning."

Program will be given on request any morning, afternoon, or evening, to groups of not less than 12 and preferably not more than 50, since "close-up" views of props and exhibits are essential for full enjoyment, the store manager said.

Women's clubs interested in the project may call Harrold at the Sherwin-Williams Branch, 1623 Cabrillo Ave.

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS THIS MOTHER'S DAY

Here is a pretty, and inexpensive way to "say it with flowers" on Mother's Day. Instead of a "store-bought" bouquet, give her a bit of yourself with flowers grown in your garden and fashioned into a gay corsage or headdress with your own hand.

Style Show To Precede Cooks' School

The latest styles in morning, afternoon, and cocktail wear will take the center of the Civic Auditorium stage this week when Mari Lynn's Dress Shop presents a fashion show preceding the Torrance Herald-Southern California Gas Co. sponsored cooking school.

The hair-cutting shows will be held from 1 to 1:30 p.m. on both days of the school, Thursday and Friday, May 14 and 15.

Misses Karen Dean and Lynn Galsky of Torrance, along with professional models from throughout Southern California, will display the fashions.

Circus Theme Sparks Tenth Birthday Fete

The circus took over at the 2716 Eldorado St. home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams when 15 friends of their daughter, Linda, gathered there Friday afternoon to help her celebrate her 10th birthday.

Red, green, blue, and other bright-colored balloons carried out the theme in living room decor. The same gay shades were echoed in miniature balloons held in the hand of an organ grinder who topped the birthday cake.

Start Classes On Leadership Tomorrow

First in a series of four leadership classes sponsored by Torrance Council PTA will be held tomorrow at Fern Ave. School, 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

A second instruction period on the same topic, "Leadership and the Local Association," will be given from 7 to 10 p.m. at Seaside School for those unable to attend the morning session.

The class will be conducted by Mesdames Edward G. Kemp and Allan Storm, First District officers.

Succeeding lectures, conducted by local PTA leaders, will be held at the same hours, same locales, on May 18, 25 and 28. Anyone interested may enroll in the course by attending the first class meeting.

Continental To Sponsor Skylighters' Ball Friday

The look of soft, summer twilight will fill the YWCA next Friday night, May 15, when the Continentals, Y-Teen club composed of senior THS girls, stage a "Skylighters' Ball."

To carry out the theme of the 8 p.m. to 12 midnight affair, navy and light blue crepe paper sprinkled with stars will be suspended from the ceiling. White cotton "clouds" dusted with the palest blue will billow around a golden stairway, complete with arch, which will frame the large picture window at one end of the hall.

A single, fluffy cloud of the same material will float over the bandstand, from which Sal Frisina and his orchestra will play.

All THS students are invited to attend the summer ball, according to Chairman Sally Cordes. Admission price is $1.25 per couple, and 75 cents stag.

Foreign Policy Talk Headlines Annual Y Meet

Arnold Ecklund, annual meeting chairman, said.

Mrs. Rebecca Mullra, foreign delegate to the International Y Leadership Project, will give the closing prayer in her native Ugandese tongue.

"Foreign Policy Begins at Home."

This will be the message of Cyrus P. Barnum, former member of the Secretariat of Rotary International, who he speaks at the annual meeting of the Harbor District YWCA next Wednesday night, 6:30 o'clock, at the San Pedro YWCA.

Barnum, who will address the group after a 6:30 o'clock dinner, served as one of the Rotary's "Consultants" and attended the conference at San Francisco where the United Nations Charter was drawn up.

By visits to U. N. headquarters and by frequent contacts with its Public Information Department and the United States Mission to the U. N., he has continued to follow its progress.

Prior to his work with Rotary, Barnum served as executive secretary of the University of Minnesota YWCA, where his relations with foreign students led to his appointment as director of the international relations project on the staff of the dean of students. In this capacity, he was advisor to foreign students and assisted campus and community groups with their international program plans.

In addition to the program, results of the election for board members will be reported. Mrs.

You In The Church
The Church In You.
Form a combination for good. We should attend church regularly. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the CHURCH. Be Faithful! Be a Churchman.

ONE DAY for the Mothers of America... but not for mothers in general. It is a day for my mother. There's something special, something extra, that comes only from my mother. This day calls me to say and do the loveliest things for her. It is a meager tribute that I should dedicate this one day... pause to speak grateful words and do generous deeds. It is my Mother's Day.

How MUCH I owe my Mother! She was the life-giver, or life-bearer under God. She carried me for many months under her heart. She has carried me on her heart for the years that have followed. She will carry me in her heart forever. God bless her today. I too will bless her. Perhaps God can bless her most only through me. She may pray that I bear the divine blessings to her.

Gifts will be in order, of course. But the words of affection, of thanks, and of genuine concern for her health and happiness will be counted beyond price. Gifts without the personal word may be very poor, no matter what the price. Let me think the sweetest words then say them all to her. "If you have any flowers to give, give them now. Living eyes are always hungry." This is Mothers' Day. It is my Mother's Day.

See You in Church TODAY!
