Roaring Twenties Relived at Party

By HELENE ALLISON Menlo 4-2439

Mother's Day found many a family together to celebrate this occasion and honor the greatest of them all, Mother. Gifts of every description have been received, some big, some small. North Torrance Civic Improvement Association was held this past week at McMaster Hall with the highlight of the evening being the presentation of the charters and membership cards to the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts, Dr. Sheffield, long associated with El Camino College, awarded the charters of Cub Scout Troop 761-C to Scoutmaster John Miller and Boy Scout Troop 761 to B. Caton in a most impressive ceremony. Those den mothers honored were: Mrs. Ruby Carrico, Alice Mac-Donald, Margaret Bee, J. R. MacDonald and Walt Bronson as committeemen of Cubs and Boy Scout leaders honored included: Walt Bronson, chairman; J. Snell, commissioner; Jack Terry, institutional representative, Neighborhood Chairman Kenny Leatherman was also introduced to those attending. President Jack White accepted the charter as sponsor of the organization.

daughter" from Mom, "Glad you're you," from the mother-in-law Mrs. Ray Allison; the "extra-special sister" from a considerate brother.

Cub Scout Den 2, Troop 761 honored the mothers with a party at the Donnelly home Thursday evening with the boys serving and acting as the hosts for the affair. Each mother was given a gift made by the boy—even the wrapping paper was a Scout product. The big moment came when each mother was awarded a medal made from the top of a can with a salt from which ran a ribbon. A huge safety pin supported the ribbon and was pinned to the mothers with gusto! The well-chosen words printed so schoolboyishly were: "My hero Mother." Quite an honor!

For all concerned let's hope that last impressions are not so lasting. At least Mrs. Peggy Sale got a send-off she will remember this past Thursday when friends gathered to say goodbye preparatory to her leaving the tract and moving to Alondra Heights. Although the periods were a little mixed, the effect brought much merriment. The gowns of the roaring twenties dug up from heaven knows where were priceless! Taking all honors was Mrs. Ruth Snell, who wore a most becoming satin number with a tight-fitting hat. Spit curls were the mode of the day and many wore them well. The flappers were in the proper setting with "boop-boop-a-doop" and "wo-dee-do" signs all over the place. The luncheon served by hostesses Martha Sherwood and Doris Babb was topped off by a fapper and a rascoon-coated gentleman doing the Charleston on top of a cake. Ruth Snell walked (or shall I say danced off) with all honors with her Charleston steps. Among those bidding farewell to a wonderful neighbor were Mesdames Ott Fagnano, J. Snell, Thelma Odell, Daniel Mangali, Robert Richter, J. R. Allison, and mother-in-law to Peggy, Mrs. Della Miller.

A workshop for PTA was held at San Gabriel this week for Torrance council. Those officers attending from this area were A. B. Cowie, hospitality and historian; W. A. Wright, recording secretary; L. R. Blumfield, corresponding secretary; Jules Ross, auditor, and J. Hernan Cortez, courtney.

The Mothers Clubs of Boy Scout Troop 761 and the newly-organized Explorers 761-x will combine forces in a meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Marie Winthers, 17441 Yukon. The date: May 18 at 8 o'clock. All mothers from both groups are urged to attend to elect the officers for the coming year.

Mr. I. Dean Jones, brother of Mrs. Duane Sherwood, returned this week from Australia where he has resided the past five years. Jones is a merchant marine.

The executive board members of North Torrance Elementary PTA were honored at a luncheon this week at the home of their president, Mrs. Robert Jackson, 17032 Delia. The tables were set with a spring flower motif, lunch was served and thus climaxed a year of sincere efforts.

Classes in parent information are being conducted this month for the general information of those interested in parent-teacher work. Morning classes will be held at Greenwood School, 9 to 12 on May 11, 18, 25, 28. The same classes will be repeated in the evening at Seaside School 7 to 10 on May 11, 18, 25, 28. The classes will cover leadership, local association, state and national, committees, and high school and parliamentary procedure. All are invited to attend these sessions. In view of the fact that our new school will be ready by this coming year, it is hoped that many of the classes.

you in the area of Evelyn Carr School will make an effort to attend, Mesdames Kemp, Turner, Carr, and Bernard will conduct the classes.
