Clean Campus Pays Off for Gauchosites

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL
 Many Gauchos were seen at Nob Hill last Friday afternoon. School was out at 2:30 because of a clean campus. Err, when I say the water was cold I'm not kidding! Some students seen having a jolly good time were: Craig Chudy, LeRoy Henson, Jack Holcroft, Marie Trautner, Joyce Bernhardt, Margie Coz, Joy Minson, Audrie Rozz, Connie Long, Johnny Sampson, Orville Baleom, Laura Robert, Lila Cordray, Peggy Von Volkenburg, Millie Childs, Dan Domonoske, Mary Helen Key, John Brown, "Spook" Brown, and just about the whole student body.

Narbonne's first annual Hot Rod Show went over big last Sunday according to many enthusiastic spectators. There were many students from all the schools around this area. Jack Cadden, Dick Barrett, and Larry Brown are to be congratulated for making this event so outstanding. These boys have worked very hard.

The day has finally come. Hurry! What? You might ask. Oh, did you forget? Today is Cotton Day! Guests from different schools will be judges at an assembly to choose the lucky Cotton Day Queen.

Carmen Ochoa has been picked as Narbonne's Posture Queen for this semester. Myrna Bacon and Peggy Von Volkenburg came in second and third respectively. In the junior division, Joyce Loodige was first, Jackie Hoy second, and Norma Delaware third. Carmen and Joyce will advance to the All-City Posture Finals.

Tomorrow, flower girls for the senior graduation exercises will be chosen. Thirty-five girls are needed as the exercises will be outside.

Yesterday the mighty Senior Ayes played hockey for third period on. They went to Balboa for their traditional senior picnic. Everyone announced that they had a wonderful time.

Dean Domonoske took over County Supervisor Burton Chace's duties during Boys' Week last week. Jerry Moore was county health officer. Other boys taking over top jobs were: Dave Holstrom, who ousted Mr. Barnett as principal, Keith Goodwin, Herman Burns, and Walter Bell who seized the jobs of other school administrators. The boys also took over as teachers.

Most of the Scholarship Society members came home slk from eating so much (especially Ruthie Armes) after attending the CSF conference at Pasadena City College all day last Saturday. After visiting the different landmarks, the members (about 30) topped it all by going ice skating.

ing, Rosa Duarte fell on the ice 12 times! Right, Rosa?

Did you know that next Tuesday will be the PTA Flower Show? If you have any outstanding flowers you would like to exhibit, why not enter them in the flower show and bring home a ribbon?

Something new has been started for the Junior High. Tomorrow night there will be a Junior Narbonne. There will be games, dances and refreshments. From what is rumored, it should be loads of fun. Your student body card will admit you free. So come all and join the fun.

May 26 will be election day. So be thinking of who you are going to vote for.

Tomorrow night the annual Latin Banquet will be in the school cafeteria. It promises to be the best ever. All the club members have been working hard for several weeks trying to make this event a big success. One of the features of tomorrow's program will be a Roman Style Show. That should be hilarious!

Narbonne has two track qualifiers for the City Track Finals to be held at the Coliseum tomorrow. They are Bob Dreyer, the Gauchos' ace miler and Flying Jerry Moore, one of the city's best pole vaulters.

"Little Darling," a hilarious play, was presented at a pay assembly last Friday by the drama class. Also, everyone was nearly bursting at the sides at the skit given by Mr. Cost's "Stage Crew Capers." Narbonne's brand new jazz band played a couple of hot pieces. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the assembly.

The results of the division 2 spelling contest were given last Monday. The winners are Diane Miller first, and Shirley Kangas a close second in the 10th grade; Shirley Kastrup, 11th grade; and Nancy Harsh, 12th grade.
