Mother's Day was a busy one for many Seaside, with trips to visit mother and several parties in her honor being held here in the Rancho. Among those celebrating the day were: Mr. and Mrs. Schoeney moved to Los Angeles for a surprise outdoor party for her great-grandmother, Mrs. O. M. Bradford. There were 14 guests present including great-grandchildren.

Jos and Lois Stanley and four children drove to Del Mar to visit his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Briggs celebrated Mother's Day with a barbecue. Included in the festivities were Mrs. Lois Gongwer and son Gary, and Mr. and Mrs. Gill Whitehead of Long Beach.

Jan Kirby unfortunately stayed home with son Jay, who had chickenpox.

the family for Mother's Day. Included among the 12 members were great-grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Munn from Buena Park; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Blanchard and their three children, and Mr. and Mrs. Beck and daughter Susane, also from the Rancho.

The O'Raidys are the new proud parents of a new little Kathleen Maire, born to Mary and John Mularky of Sepulveda Gardens on May 2, at Torrance Memorial Hospital. The 8 lb., 5 oz. girl and mother are doing fine.

Mrs. Evelyn Mundson was pleasantly surprised on Mother's Day with a gift from husband and daughter of a rare butterfly orchid plant. The colors are a blend of chartreuse, pale yellow, and brown.

Las Vegas members are giving a card party at the St. James parish hall on Friday night at 8 o'clock. A donation of 50 cents per person will be used for the handicapped children at Harbor General Hospital. Although you may start the game with parties you came with, you must rotate to be eligible for the score prizes. There will also be door prizes that were donated by merchants of the South Bay area. Everyone is welcome, grandchildren.

A Cancer Benefit Dance sponsored jointly by Las Vegas and the Sportsmen's Club will be held in the Riviera Club on May 30. The tickets are a dollar per person.

Mrs. Robert Parks, who will be our new PTA president, has been working for the past week getting the new chairman organized. For those who are interested there will be a PTA extension class every Monday on the following dates: May 11, 18, 25, and 28 from 7 to 10 p.m. at Seaside School.

Last Monday Mary Lou Hopkins gave a baby shower for Lola Smith. Ten guests were present including Doris Fay, Jan Kirby, Helen Charleston, Margie Baxter, Mary Neilson, John Lyon, and Janet Lyon.
