Paper Drive Really Went 'Over' And How

BY BERNADETTE WEBER

The Las Vecinas card party was quite a success. Everyone had a good time, and $238.93 was taken in. The proceeds will go for the handicapped children at Harbor General Hospital.

Helen Farrel of the Hampton Players tells me they have finished casting for a new play to be seen at the Redondo High School auditorium. From the lineup of characters I'd say they have chosen an excellent cast, starting with the lead which is played by the very talented Stanley Johnson of Lomita and who is also the director of the Palos Verdes Players. The next part is played by a newcomer to the group, Kathy Lindsay of Manhattan Beach, who plays the part of Sally. The rest of the cast includes the following: Warren Lavendar from Allied Gardens; Gordon Goodrich, Palos

Verdes; Jane Lafferty from Torrance, Dorothy Tunis and Rita Mackey of Hermosa Beach, and Salley McMullen, of Redondo Beach.
On May 21st a birthday party for Arthur Baxter, by his mother, Mrs. Ralph Baxter of Carroll Dr. Those partaking of the cake and ice cream were Margaret Stanley, Billy Malon, Michael Cole, Stephen Stohman, Douglas Stohman and of course, four-year-old Arthur.
The paper drive went over big but it had an unhappy ending when the loaded truck with papers went over the side of the road. At seven o'clock in the evening dozens of little boys were scrambling up and down the bank trying to re-salvage the papers. I bet that big truck won't go that way again.
The Dean Hansens and son,

Notes on Narbonne

Gauchos Turn Their Backs to the Sun

BY ADRIENNE SIDWELL
Narbonne certainly is going "red" — that is "sun-burned." Good Ole Nob Hill has really been swarming with Gauchos, as well as Tartars, who have anxiously been awaiting the first days of summer sun.

"Mostly Western," the theme of Narbonne's talent show this year, was carried out at an assembly Thursday and also Friday evening. Because of the lack of time the assembly on Thursday was cut short—but was very enjoyable. Some of the featured attractions were: Pat Gilbert, tap dancer; Geraldine Daniels, ballet dancer; Tom Sorenson, vocalist; a Spanish scene enacted by the Spanish club; Billy Faith, Bill Buttler, Danny Lister, guitarists; and many more. The show was a big success.

This coming Monday, the senior G.A.A. members will vote for their new officers who will take office next fall. A close race is predicted by all as all the candidates are considered well qualified. The following Friday will be the Senior G.A.A. Banquet. The board members have chosen as their theme, "Hit Parade." Each class will carry out a certain hit record.

Tennis balls have really been whistling by the past weeks as the girls tennis tournament is going full swing. The competitors are battling to have their name put on the gold tennis plaque hanging in the girls' gym.

Pity the poor A12's and A9's next week is final exam week for them!!

Tickets for the Senior Breakfast are now being sold. The committee in charge of the breakfast has really been working hard to make this affair a success.

Seen flashing around the campus are the brand new senior "B" rings. Boy, they certainly are nifty looking! If you haven't seen one yet ask a proud Senior "B" to show you his.

Tomorrow is the Big Night! The Junior-Senior Prom. The event to which everyone has been looking forward. It will start at eight p.m. in the boys' gym.

All the new officers of the Girls' League will be formally installed during third period today.

Roger Hollis won the senior division of the posture contest held last week! He will be a participant in the posture contest at Manual Arts High School. Everyone is wishing Roger luck. Leo Neuman took top honors in the Junior Division.
