

Thanksgiving Day Notes from Heights

By SUE BURK
FR. 5-4549

Not much doing on the home front this week-end except visiting and a lot of visitors. I like most of those I know, suffered a huge overdose of over-eating.

Thanksgiving visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Muldoon of Sharynne Lane to enjoy the huge turkey and trimmings were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Austin and family of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reynolds of South Gate, and Mrs. Austin of Torrance.

Starring in the Band Review in Long Beach on this last Saturday from Seaside Ranchos and Seaside Heights were Dorsey Gruver, Jerry Zervantian, Leonard Kissell, and Bill Grey, who were with Torrance Tartar Band.

Attending a wedding shower for Paul and Marlene Reynolds were the John Zervantian family of Reese Rd. in the Ranchos.

Away from home for the Thanksgiving holiday was the Jack S. Mitchell family of Zakon Rd., who enjoyed a family reunion dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hendon and family of El Segundo.

Company for dinner over Thanksgiving in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Renz were Fred Renz and daughters of Norwalk. Alpha states that in the beginning the turkey was stuffed, but in the ending—whey!

Folks, 'tis true. A and truth

'tis I say for Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Holstin and family have definitely decided to move to Hemet. Merle and children are very busy re-decorating the old homestead at 5121 Zakon Rd., which is now up for sale. May I join in the many neighbors and friends who wish the Holstins the best kind of future.

Visitors for Mr. and Mrs. Preston Nix and family of Zakon Rd. over Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. Bickham and daughter Annette, and Mr. and Mrs. Chidester and son Ronnie. Myrtle answered, when asked how she enjoyed her holidays: "I'm still stuffed."

Sorry to hear that Joan and Melinda Middlebrooks of Doris Way are under the weather. Both girls are suffering the very common malady, colds. Among the many kiddies who are feeling the after-effects of too much bird is Carolyn Grierson. Seems so many of the children either have upset stomach or just plain don't want to eat.

Dorothy D. Johnson states that the registration is now open for anyone who wants to register to vote. The school bond election is proposed to take place on March 9. Applicants must be signed up 54 days before voting on this issue. Be sure you are registered. New residents moving into this area must be registered in order to vote. To register call at the Johnson address, 28077 Doris Way—Frontier 5-1839.
