

Plan Potluck, Xmas Party

Board members of 186th St. PTA charted plans for the regular potluck luncheon, to be held Dec. 16, and for the annual Christmas party, scheduled for Dec. 18, when they met last Monday at the school.

Price of admission to the potluck festivities will be one dollar, including a Christmas dinner of food, Mrs. B. B. Burnett, press chairman, reported.

PTA has purchased one pair of glasses for a child in need, Mrs. P. Donaher, welfare chairman, revealed at the Monday meeting.

Reports on a presidential club meeting, held Dec. 1 at the Wilmington home of Mrs. Charles Dupuy, and the Tenth District meeting held at Garfield High School in Los Angeles on Dec. 3 were delivered by Mrs. James McMillen, president.

Brother Back From Korea For Miss Rowe's Wedding

Return from Korea of her brother, Seaman Second Class Chris Rowe, in time for the ceremony added another drop to Miss Diane Bernice Rowe's cup of happiness last Thursday morning when she became Mrs. Edward Vincent Bourne.

The Navyman, who has served in Korea waters aboard the USS Bremerton since July, currently is stationed on the same ship at Los Angeles Harbor.

White carnations and chrysanthemums decorated the 1640 W. 220th St. home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Bourne, for the quiet rites, conducted by the Rev. Paul Kelly.

For the occasion, Miss Rowe, daughter of the Henry Rowes, 26223 Regent Ave., Lomita, chose a powder blue dressmaker suit with white orchid corsage.

Attending her as maid of honor was Miss Barbara Schemp of Lomita, who was attired in a pearl gray suit with a corsage of white carnations. Rodney Williams served as best man.

Following the ceremony, the Bourne home was opened to many friends and relatives gathering to present gifts and congratulations to the young couple.

The new Mrs. Bourne, who attended Narbonne High School before her marriage, and her husband, a 1953 Narbonne graduate, are now making their home at 830 W. Third St., San Pedro.
