Two Weddings on Calendar

Bill Garner Claims Bride Tomorrow

Tomorrow evening Staff Sgt. Bill Garner, son of the John Garners, 803 Amapola Ave., will claim Miss Kathleen Bader as his bride at quiet rites in the 26022 Eshelman Ave. home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bader.

Only members of the immediate families will be on hand for the candlelight ceremony, to be conducted at 7 o'clock by Bishop Edwin M. Wheat of Torrance, but many friends have been invited to share in reception festivities at the Bader home after the service.

Tapers will be lighted by Miss Patricia Perry while her mother, Mrs. Ted Eddy, a cousin of the bride, plays background music at the piano. When the traditional organ strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Eddy, begin, Mrs. M. E. Brown, attending as matron of honor, will precede her sister's advance to the simulated altar.

Standing with the groom as best man will be his brother, John Robert Garner, a staff sergeant in the Air Force who is now stationed at Dayton, Ohio.

After a four-day honeymoon at an undisclosed destination, the groom will return to Smokey Hill Air Force Base in Salina, Kansas, where he has been stationed since his return from a year's duty in Japan. His bride will remain at the home of her parents until her graduation from Narbonne High School in January, then will join him at Salina.

Miss Phelps, Harrison Say Vows Today

With Watteria Methodist Church as the setting, Miss Lois Phelps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Phelps, 24457 Park St., Watteria, will become Mrs. William C. Harrison this afternoon.

The Rev. Robert Van Landingham will perform the 3 o'clock rites uniting the young bride, a graduate of Torrance High School, and Army Private Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen E. Lockhart of San Pedro.

Attending Miss Phelps as matron of honor will be Mrs. Phil Falkenstein, while serving as bridesmaids will be her sister, Miss Elaine Phelps, and Miss Cynthia Jansson. Alex Winner will be best man, and Don Bruce and Don Mescheder will seat the 100 guests who have been invited to witness the ceremony.

A reception will follow at the 24454 Park St. home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilkins, close friends of the Phelps family. The new Mr. and Mrs. Harrison will leave on Tuesday, Dec. 22, for Georgia, where they will make their home near Camp Gordon, present Army station of the groom.

While attending Torrance High, Miss Phelps was active in the Girls Athletic Association and Tartar Ladies. Her fiancé also is a THS graduate.

Jobies Carol Tomorrow

Spreading holiday spirit with Christmas carols tomorrow night will be Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 50.

The girls, under the leadership of their new queen, Janie Moffatt, will gather at Harbor General Hospital at 7 o'clock to serenade the patients, then will explore the present sang "Silent Night" for their part in the program.

Refreshments of chocolate Santa Clauses, cookies, and punch were served by the Mothers Club.

Scouts Hold Xmas Party

Each patrol took part in the entertainment last Thursday night when Boy Scout Troop 761 and Explorer Post 761-X gathered at McMaster Hall for a Christmas party.

"Thunder Bird" boys made up a band and played "Silent Night"; Eagle Patrol sang "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen"; and boys from Beaver, Mohawk, Flaming Arrow, and Mustang patrols each presented a skit.

Explorer Joe Bill Gustafson gave a talk on Texas and other serenade the patients, then will explore the present sang "Silent Night" for their part in the program.

Refreshments of chocolate Santa Clauses, cookies, and punch were served by the Mothers Club.

Riviera Home Takes Hawaiian Air for 'Bon Voyage' Party

Hula dancers and palm fronds added a Hawaiian air and symbolized the traveler's destination when Mrs. E. D. Hauk opened her 228 Via Linda Vista home for a "bon voyage" party honoring Juanita C. Lemaster of Gardena.

The honoree will enplane for the islands on Christmas Eve, for on Christmas Day she will exchange marriage vows with Stanley C. Haynes, formerly of Los Angeles, who is now a communications expert at the Pearl Harbor Navy Base.

Mesdames James Van Dyck of Torrance, E. D. Hauk Jr., and Robin Thomas of Lakewood shared hostess honors with Mrs. Hauk at the farewell fête, joining their talents with hers in arranging the buffet luncheon which followed presentation of the gifts.

The "little brown gals" did the hula and played ukulele amidst an arrangement of waving palm fronds and brilliant orange and yellow chrysanthemums which centered the table. The dancing figurines also marked each place setting.

Gathering to present their farewell wishes to the honoree were Mesdames T. P. Caldwell, LaVerne Parker, and Patricia Portney of Compton; Thomas Schoepflin, Ray Martin, and William Marco of Long Beach; Eldon Herndon of Paramount; Glen Weathers of Hawthorne; Helene Brown of Los Angeles; and the hostesses.

Former Shirley Booth, Groom To Spend Yule Holidays Here

Home for the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Booth, 1328 Elm Ave., will be Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Brink, nee Miss Shirley E. Booth.

The young couple, who are making their home in St. Louis, Mo., will be enjoying their first visit here since their marriage in the Missouri city on Oct. 16. Ceremonies were performed at the Normandy Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Grant O. Jennings officiating.

Attending as matron of honor was Mrs. Jack Ooley. Friends greeted the couple at the Harlequin Club after the ceremony.

The former Miss Booth, who graduated from Torrance High School in 1950, has served in the Women's Army Corps for the past three years. During the last two years she was stationed at the St. Louis Army Finance Center until her discharge a few months ago.

Klipwings Give Yule Basket to Exceptional Kids' Foundation

Klipwings, the United Stewardess Alumnae Inc., which includes many local residents among its membership, presented a basket of Christmas gifts to the children of the San Pedro Chapter of the Exceptional Children's Foundation Wednesday night.

Many of these children come from normal parents and have normal brothers and sisters. The Exceptional Children's Foundation was formed by parents who decided to co-operate in establishing a school to teach these children, who could not have access to regular school systems.
