

New Shrine Potentate Pledges Increase in Hospital Activity

William J. Vaughan has been elected potentate of Al Malakiah Temple of the Shrine, it was announced this week. He will assume office immediately in the nation's largest Shrine temple, with members in Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Santa Barbara, Ventura, San Luis Obispo, and Kern counties.

Vaughan, who succeeds Arch Field as potentate, will shortly announce appointments to his official staff, along with a list of important Shrine charity and social events for the ensuing year. The latter will include a family show on Jan. 23, a Ladies' Day luncheon on Feb. 4, and a Las Vegas Caravan on March 19-21.

It is with the greatest of humility that I approach my new post," Vaughan said as he assumed office, "humility and a firm determination to increase Shrine activities in the fields of Efforts will be spurred to bring into the Al Malakiah fold the many Shriners from other temples who are now Southern California residents, Vaughan added.

Business Executive
The new potentate is executive vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and a director of Electrical Products Corp., manufacturers of neon and Zeon electrical signs. He is a member of the State Bar of California, the Rotary and Jonathan clubs, Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and such Masonic orders as the Masons, Scottish Rite, Knights Templar, Royal Arch Masons, Royal Order of Jeseters and of course, Al Malakiah Temple of the Shrine where he has held a life membership since 1937 and has acted as chairman of many committees.

Vaughan, who was born in Osceola, Mo., on Jan. 30, 1903, has been a Californian since he was six. He was schooled at Oroville and Chico, and graduated from the College of Law, Oakland. He and Mrs. Vaughan reside in Los Angeles with their two children, Mary Louise and William, Jr.

North American Stops Use of Name by Others

Use of the name "North American" will be denied North American Systems, Inc., and others on the basis of a ruling made last week from the bench by U. S. District Judge Pierson M. Hall at the conclusion of a trial which began Nov. 17. The judge ruled that a judgment for the plaintiff, North American Aviation, Inc., should be entered.

Among Rivieras present at the installation of new officers of the South Bay Republican Women's Club were Mesdames Frank Booth, 106 Via Monte de Oro; Lloyd M. Hennen, 220 Palos Verdes Blvd., and E. Spencer Conway, 940 Calle Miramar. The installation was held Friday, Jan. 8, at Neptunea Hall in Manhattan Beach, with Republican clubwomen from 11 other South Bay and adjacent areas attending. Charles Chappel, Assemblyman for the 46th District, was installing officer, while Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, James W. Stillman, was speaker.

Mrs. Willard Key, 416 Calle Mayor, newly-appointed Riviera chairman for the club, was unable to attend this meeting as official representative, due to illness. Also present from Riviera was Mrs. W. G. Jerrens III, director of the club.

New officers of the Tau Omega chapter of the National Delphian Society were elected at the meeting of the local chapter last Thursday, Jan. 7, at the Palos Verdes Art Gallery. Riviera Mrs. E. Spencer Conway, 940 Calle Miramar, was elected president to succeed Mrs. Lloyd M. Hennen, outgoing president.

New vice-president of the chapter is Mrs. Robert Matson, 229 Via Alameda, who succeeds Mrs. Conway at this post. Third Riviera elected to office is Mrs. R. H. Ellis, 224 Paseo de Granada, who takes over the post of treasurer. Mrs. Howard Wilkerson of Palos Verdes was elected secretary. Appointed to the seminar board for the new year were Rivieras Mesdames Lloyd Hennen, Lee Washington, 232 Via los Miradores, and Mrs. Edgar Gibbs, of Palos Verdes Estates.

The new president announced that the course of study selected by Tau Omega for the new year will be "Political Patterns." This is the chapter's second year of existence, it being formed here on Jan. 15, 1953. The group meets twice monthly at the Art Gallery of the Palos Verdes Public Library to pursue courses along the Delphian Society's "big three pattern"—learning, thinking, and speaking.

Sunday, Jan. 24, is the date selected by Las Vecinas for their get-together tea, at which newly-accepted members and sponsors meet formally with officers of the club. This year the tea is to be held at the home of Mrs. Max Webber, 1636 Via Arriba, Palos Verdes. Riviera Mrs. Louis Regan, 265 Vista del Parque, publicity chairman for the club, added that Mrs. Thomas O'Malley, 958 Calle Miramar, is membership chairman and in charge of the tea.

At the next general membership meeting of Las Vecinas, scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 28, the new members will be introduced to the general membership.

Speaking of Las Vecinas, the regular sewing session was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robert Matson, 229 Via Alameda. Twelve clubwomen attended the get-together at which Las Vecinas members engaged in their favorite form of sewing. Refreshments and coffee were served.

Bustily prepping for the lead part in the South Bay Civic Light Opera Association's next presentation, "Kiss Me, Kate," is Orine Baetus, of 245 Vista del Parque. Playing opposite her will be Rivieran Bud Wright, 328 Via Colusa, who plays Horatio, one of her suitors. Two other Rivieras are holding down dual roles in the lavish production, Dick Bonham, 221 Via Buena Ventura, plays the dual role of Bill Calhoun and Lucentio, while Paul Bennett, 716 Calle de Arboles, plays the dual roles of Harry Trevor and Batista. The five-night run of "Kiss Me, Kate" will open the evening at the Redondo Union High School auditorium, and promises to be one of the best productions yet staged in this area. Other evening playings dates are Jan. 30, Feb. 4 and 5, with a Sunday matinee scheduled for Feb. 6. Tickets and other information may be obtained by calling Frontier 4-3766 or 2-8070.

Louis Regan, 265 Vista del Parque, president of the Sportsmen's Club, reports that the club's giant membership drive kicked off last Thursday evening at their regular meeting at the Riviera Beach Club, 3300 Third Street, 1300 members—that's the goal for the drive, and any male resident of Riviera is eligible to join this worthwhile club. Jim Greer, 142 Via Alameda, vice-president of the club, has been appointed membership chairman, and with his committee, is currently planning various social and other programs designed to show prospective members all the good reasons why they too should be Sportsmen, Rivieras interested in joining, or learning more about the club, may phone Greer at FR 5-3911 or contact any Sportsman. As you know, this is the group that sponsors Club and Boy Scout troops and other youth programs here, as well as undertaking our regular Halloween and Christmas programs for children.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Jones, 251 Calle de Andaluca, attended the semi-formal dances held recently at Lacey's in Hollywood for the Hughes staff. Accompanying the Joneses to the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ferderber and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parkhurst of Palos Verdes.

We have two convalescents on Calle de Andaluca, living side by side, but repairing from damages from two different sources. Let's ever George McBurney first, who resides at 123 Calle de Andaluca. Seems as though McBurney was displaying his basketball prowess in a little game with Les Strobel played at the Strobel's, 130 Calle de Andaluca. During the hot play, McBurney slipped and shattered his kneecap. All this happened two days after Christmas, and George McB. spent from then till last Thursday, tucked away in a clean white hospital getting repaired. As this is written, he is still on crutches, still convalescing from the friendly little game of basketball across the street.

Next door to him, at 119 Calle de Andaluca, Don MacLeod has recovered from a dissimilar accident which forced him to spend Christmas Day in the hospital. Suffering from a traffic ac-

Chamber to Give Free Tax Forms

Yes, it's almost that time of year again, and once again income tax forms, state and federal, will be available at the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, 1345 El Prado, according to Dale Isenberg, executive secretary.

The Chamber gave out 25,000 copies of the forms last year and expect to top that figure in '54. Arrangements are being made with the San Pedro office of the Bureau of Internal Revenue to have a representative at the Chamber office at a later date to offer free help to any persons who might have trouble with their returns.
