Gal Loses Tonsils, Yammers for Steak

By HELEN AMOS
PA 8-1986

(This week's column is being written by Mrs. Joan Schmidt, 1220 Maple Ave., who is substituting for Helen Amos. Helen is recovering from a tonsillectomy—Ed.)

We will never know whether she had her tonsils out or not. Of course, she speaks softly, but she's crying for a steak! (It is of Helen that I speak). At any rate, girls, it's a "real deal"—36 hours off duty with no dishes, dustin' or dispersing to wash. Ah me!

There's simply nothing like a station wagon to take an overnight trip in, according to Don and Shirley West, of 1309 Corchery. They and their children Craig and Heidi spent the week-end visiting San Diego and Tijuana. When night fell, they simply found a nice park, locked their doors, made up their bed and dreamed about the motel bills they used to pay for.

However, a few neighbors stayed home and entertained. The Sid Gens, of 1011 Kornblum, have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Von Stapleton from Alamo gordo, former neighbors of the Gens.

Betty Kizing from Pittsburg, Pa., is a visitor at the home of her brother Jack Kizing and his wife of 2883 Ontario.

The Louis Dyers of 2883 Ontario had lots of company with them. Mr. Dyer's mother, Mrs. Lydia Agnirre, and daughter, Mrs. Hope Solis, and her two children from Montrose Park have been guests in the Dyer household recently.

Geen Bay, Wis., was represented

ed in Torrance last week by Mrs. Charles Downen and Mrs. Henry Dehn who visited the Norm Laverty's at 804 Cranbrook. The visitors are the mother and sister respectively of Vivian Laverty.

Birthdays haven't let up a bit in the Gardens and the Plaza. Four little boys and a girl sang "Happy Birthday" justly to Gregory Willmore who was four years old Jan. 15. The folks attending were Dickie Welstead, Bobbie Heller, Grant Galyard and Keith Dugger. The brave little girl was Peggy Welstead.

Jimmy Coffman's ninth birthday party ranged from the backyard through both ends of the house according to Mrs. Coffman of Patronella Ave. His guest list included brother Bill, Ronnie Campbell, Oren, Arlene and Barbara McKnight, Michael Duffy, Patsy and Jimmy Malone, Perry Taylor, and Nancy McGuire.

Hamsters were pounding and paint and paste were being applied in many a household over the week-end. To mention a few: Mory Hatten, of 820 Maple Ave., hung a beautiful wallpaper scene in his entrance hall.

Down the street a bit at No. 1216, Marylee Peters was applying pink and gray paint to her kitchen. She can really wield a paint brush! Around the corner Margaret Evans, of 1212 Felbar, was doing the same to hers in yellow and gray. And across the street Bert Bolser, of No. 1215, was buzzing away at his newly-purchased saw turning out adjustable shelves for the boy's room.

Brand-new Michael Johns, of 327 Hickory, is really well on his way to being a "bold citizen." Life is pretty wonderful these days, but he's getting homesome for his daddy, Merrill Johns, who has been away on a business trip in New Mexico.

Miss Jack Gable, lieutenant for the Mothers March of Dimes, needs a few ladies to help her out on Feb. 2 to collect in the Gardens from Hickory to Crenshaw. It's a good cause; if you have a few hours, get in touch with Mrs. Gable.
