

Judy Patterson Elected Leader Of Narbonne High School G.A.A.

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL
Judy Patterson was announced as the new Senior GAA president, succeeding Sandra Katilla, at the semi-annual Senior GAA Banquet, which was celebrated under the theme, "Entertainment, U.S.A.," held last Friday evening in the Narbonne High School cafeteria.

Mary Hatheway was chosen as the outstanding A-12 girl who has done the most for GAA and she was awarded the coveted GAA Plaque. Sandra Katilla was given the President's Trophy.

Marie Traunfelder is the new playday chairman, Barbara Irvin will take over the reins as president of the Lettergirls Club.

Elected to assist Judy next semester are Shirley Endo, vice-president; and Anet Grate, secretary. Lila Cordray will be in charge of keeping the GAA records straight. Handling the financial part of GAA will be Anita Shaheen. Laura Tolbert is the new historian. Doree Thompson will be referee chairman, Vivian Serpa, Alice Carpenter, Shirley Martin, Joyce Endo, and Diane Schildmeyer will lead the sports-minded girls in song.

Other new Lettergirls officers are Leona Thompson, vice-president; Jerolene Boring, secretary; Marilyn Brannan, treasurer; and Dolores Choninger, historian.

The new Lettergirls are Ruth Arnes, Donna Beane, Lila Cordray, Marge Cullman, Paula Dixon, Pat Gilbert, Anet Grate, Joan Kellman, Dorothy Seales, Miller Childs, Carol Sheperd, Eileen Burrell, Mary Embrees, Adrienne Sidwell, and Jackie Zittle.

Honorary letters were given to Harvey Shaefer, and Mrs. Julia B. Stevens for the work they have done for the GAA.

Graduating members, who presented the gym staff with an electric coffee pot, are Joan Langerud, Marilyn Walker, Kay Curry, Sandra Katilla, Carmen Ochoa, and Bonnie Young.

Letters, stars, and prizes for winning GAA teams were also awarded.

Twenty-four alumnae, the most that have ever attended past banquets, were on hand for this big celebration.

The GAA wishes to thank members of the Junior GAA for their much-appreciated serving of roast beef at the banquet. On April 7, Narbonne is scheduled to have a big playday with Gardena, Venice, Manual Arts, and Polytechnic invited to attend.

The board is planning a party for next Wednesday with hamburgers as the main dish on the menu.

Word has been passed around that the Lettergirls vs. women faculty volleyball game after school yesterday was a dilly! Ask the Lettergirls who won!

Torrance Girl Elected El Camino AWS President

Julie Rhone of Torrance has been elected president of the Associated Women Students at El Camino College for the spring semester, it was announced this week.

Don Watkins, Hawthorne, was elected president of the student body and Kathy Greevy, Redondo Beach, vice-president. Associated Men Students president is Bill Richie of Hawthorne.
