

Leave Front Tag On That Auto, DMV Chief Says

Do not remove the front plate from your car after receiving your vehicle registration for 1954.

This urgent warning was issued to California motorists yesterday by Paul Mason, State Director of Motor Vehicles. He said reports have reached him that some car owners have removed the front plates from their vehicles after securing the single 1954 tab which must be attached to the rear license plate, as required in a new law. In previous years the Department of Motor Vehicles issued a pair of renewal tabs for attachment to both front and rear plates.

"In all directions issued by the department for 1954 renewal," Mason said, "the requirement that the single tab be attached to the rear plate, and the front plate be retained in place on the vehicle, has been emphasized. In addition, traffic law enforcement agencies urge that the 1953 tag be removed from the front plate, leaving the figure '51' showing."

Mason said these changes were provided in a law enacted in 1953. "They do not affect the requirement that all California-registered vehicles except trailers and cycles must display two license plates," he said. "Any motorist who discards his front license plate may be required by a traffic officer to secure a replacement, at a cost of $2." The Motor Vehicle director also urged motorists to secure their renewals as soon as possible before the Feb. 4 deadline, when penalties provided in law for delinquent registration increase the fees sharply. He recommended that owners apply for their renewals immediately to avoid last-minute crowds. Tabs may be secured here at 1217 Cravens Ave.

Missing Sons Found, Attend Father's Rites

Two sons who had been out of touch with the family for several years were found and were able to attend the funeral of their father, the late John C. Costello, which was held here Jan. 20, the Herald learned yesterday.

Mr. Costello, 89, lived at 20602 Normandie Ave. Located in time to attend the final rites of their father was John C. Costello Jr., of Oakland, Calif., and Bernard Costello, of New York City.
