

1954 TORRANCE BUSINESS REVIEW 1954

Ding How Restaurant, 1650-1652 Cabrillo Ave. at the corner of Carson is owned by Jim Y. Leong, who has been at this location for 7 years and has had 15 years restaurant experience. He specializes in Cantonese style Chinese foods and his place is scrupulously clean and modern in both decoration and facilities. Plenty of comfortable room with space available for private parties and banquets; and prices are reasonable.

For good, friendly service go and see Bernie or Willis at H&H Building Materials, 22208 South Vermont, who don't want to make money—they just want to make friends. B. G. Haas and W. H. Hadley have owned this business for the past four years, with 8 years experience in the line. If you are building a barbecue, come in and look over their equipment or phone FA. 8-4845.

A. M. Gamby Mortuary, 25001 Narbonne, Lomita, has been owned and operated by Mrs. A. M. Gamby since Mr. Gamby passed away in 1944. The mortuary has been at this location since 1936 offering "sympathy in time of need." Mrs. Gamby comes from a family of early settlers in the Harbor area and is very active in the Presbyterian Church and is also a member of the local Chamber of Commerce.

October 29, 1953, was the date of the grand opening of the Pixie Baby Shoppe, 1617 Cabrillo by its owners Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Severson who operate a very modern store handling a large choice of children's furniture, toys, and specializing in infants' wear. The Seversons recently bought their home here since they have always been very civic-minded.
