

Stage Stork Shower for Sis-in-Law

Mesdames Jack and Walt Designe combined hostess talents Monday evening at a stork shower honoring their sister-in-law, Mrs. Allan DeLapp.

Setting for the infatigating affair was the 722 Anapola Ave. home of Mrs. Jack Designe. Yellow and white streamers hung from the ceiling, forming an arch over the table where the honoree opened her gifts.

Capturing the main prize of the afternoon was Mrs. Flor-mand Designe, grandmother-to-be. Other prizes were won by Mesdames John Designe, cousin of the honoree; Theron Hamp-ton, Richard Schults, and Ernest Maak.

Also joining in the festivities were Mesdames James Carlin, sister of the honoree, Bill Johns, Claude Pickett, Melvin Swanson, Andre Martin, Harold Belles and daughter, Linda, and Miss Darlene Devine.

Trail Ride on 'Girl Scouts' March Slate

With several weeks of practice sitting the saddle behind them, young misses of Girl Scout Troop 416 are planning a trail ride for Mar. 6.

Those participating in the event will earn a horsewoman's badge.

Fifteen members of the troop got a special television treat last Saturday when they viewed "Meet Mills" and "My Favorite Husband" as the shows were being telecast from the CBS station. Following the entertainment, they enjoyed dinner at the Town and Country Club.

Sharing in the fun were Diane Mills, Denise Hunter, Karen McTea, Carolea Mathlin, Marilyn Miller, Gracie Connet, Sharon Ricci, Paulette Blankenship, Barbara Howard, Linda Williams, Lynn Barrett, Carolyn Nelson, Virginia Krauszer, Linda Grubbs, and Geraldine Dilkus.

The troop, led by Mrs. Richard G. Miller, is sponsored by St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Recital Set For Local Music Pupils

Several young Torrance students of music will be among those taking part in the next monthly recital of the South Bay Music-Arts Association, to be held at the Woman's Clubhouse, Redondo Beach, on Sunday, Feb. 28, 2:15 p.m.

Participating in the program are three students of Kathryn Burffington, pianist and teacher of Torrance, who are Martin Cooper, Donald Latham, and Emilie Dana.

Voice students of Nadine Farrar Nickol, also of Torrance, who will appear on the program are Dolores Smith, Janet Williamson, and Rochelle Hudson.

Gertrude Lumsden, piano and voice teacher of Seaside Heights, will present baritone Ralph Marsh and piano students Jo Jurisch, Joy Hebbling, and Sidney Sparks.

Featured guest artist for this, the fourth recital of the Association, will be the world-famous concert pianist, teacher, and composer, Paul Stoye, who now resides in Palos Verdes. He will play four of his own compositions, "Caprice," "Perpetual Motion," "Palos Verdes" and "Friendship Waltz."

With early training at the Royal Conservatory of Music and the University of Leipzig, Stoye has had a brilliant career as a concert artist. He now devotes his time to a few artist pupils and to composing.

Name First Del Amo PTA Recipients

Mrs. Noboru Nakatani, president, and Mrs. Oliver Davidson, legislation chairman, received the first honorary life memberships ever to be presented by Del Amo PTA Wednesday of last week when the Association observed Founders Day.

As program highlights, Mrs. Nakatani stressed the importance of teaching children safety in the home, giving as examples many cases seen at the Health Center, and Mrs. Davidson reported on the January legislation conference.

Business hour featured the selection of Mar. 25 for a paper and rag drive. Refreshments served by Mrs. Virginia Vincent, hospitality chairman, concluded the afternoon.

44 Dancers Dodge Hatchet

Dodging a hatchet provided much of the fun and amusement at the Portuguese Bend Clubhouse last Saturday night when Los Fiestadores held their monthly dance.

The tree-chopping instrument was used for a mixer dance in place of the traditional broom to carry out the George Washington, theme of the evening. Clubhouse decorations also carried out the theme, with silhouettes of the Father of Our Country, tree branches hung with maraschino cherries, and hatchets adding color.

Twenty-two couples, including club members and guests, attended the affair, which was arranged by Dr. and Mrs. Philip Halloran, Messrs. and Mesdames Ralph Rugraff, Robert Tripplit, and R. R. Dexter.

Next festive evening for the "Fiestadores" will be the third Saturday in March.

Local Adult Club Charter Closes Mar. 1

Anyone who wishes to be a charter member of the Torrance Adult Club must join the fast-growing group before Mar. 1. Mrs. S. A. Pyne, newly-appointed publicity chairman, revealed this week.

Visitors in this area for the winter months only may pay dues monthly, she added.

Mrs. Pyne was named to the press post last Saturday morning when a special board meeting was called. Other committee chairmen appointed were Leon Meskimen, shuffleboard; Arthur Jepson, cards; Mrs. Arthur Jepson, activities; Mrs. Charles Carlton, food; John Paynor, checkers, chess, and dominoes; Guy Hight, dance.

Celebrate 2nd Anniversary

Celebrating a day early, Mr. and Mrs. Saul Levine, 16714 Fay-smith Ave., were honored at a wedding anniversary party held Saturday night at the 16818 Fay-smith Ave. home of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Siegrist.

The couple was married on Valentine's Day two years ago.

Joining in the festivities, marked with Valentine decor, were Messrs. and Mesdames Joe Set-tins, Newell Larsen, Jack Meehan, Joe Martinez, Lee Hamilton, Nathan Goodis, Joe Haspi-ni, Garth Wordin, Walter Sapp, Mitt Zesiger, the host and host-ess, and the honored pair.

STAGE BOX SUPPER
Temple Menorah and its sis-terhood celebrated Valentine Eve with a "Swing Your Partner" square dance and box supper.

GIRL SCOUTS SEE TWO TELECASTS

Girl Scouts of Fern Ave. Greenwood PTA's Troop 1299 viewed the Art Linkletter and Bob Crosby shows at Television City last Monday, winding up the day's fun by touring Farm-er's Market.

Twenty members shared the event, accompanied by Meses G. D. Arrasmith, P. Bischoff, and A. Krauszer, leaders; P. Shino-da, R. Giles, and C. Robison.

PATRIOTIC THEME SPARKS OES SOCIAL

A patriotic theme utilizing flowers from the garden of Alice Speheger sparked table decorations at the social hour following last Thursday night's regular meeting of Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Easter Star.

Mrs. Rita Foster served as chairman, assisted by Frances Davis, Gwendolyn Barrett, Fern Mead, Alethea Smith, Thomas Foster, and Frank Thompson.

A large group of past matrons and past patrons were given escort and introduced by Worthy Matron Florence Vielle-nave during the evening cere-monies.
