Spring Fever Hits
Kettlerites Again

By TEO CUNNINGHAM
DA 6-4878

According to the calendar, it's not yet spring, but the "unseasonable" warm weather and the birds, the bees and the flowers say it is, and so there are a great many cases of spring fever here in the Knolls. . . . Besides, the tulips are starting to bloom and to a mid-westerner or even an easterner, that is one sure sign of spring. . . . So we guess that is why there isn't much news.

Wilson, the co-leader, on Martha St. to have them checked off and receive their prizes. Judy Weister and Judy Lee Bowlds were the winning team with all articles on the list being brought back in the shortest length of time. There also was a booby prize but we won't mention any name as to who got that. Barbara Wilson, Sharon Connor, Barbara Hannan and Judy Weister won the prizes for the bingo game when the girls played. Refreshments of cherry pie, ice cream and hot chocolate were served out in the patio, which was decorated in the red, white and blue colors with the patriotic-colored nuptials of candy. Mimi Cowan, Diane Wray, Barbara Wilson, Karen Korth, Doreen Elliott, Donna Dunklin, Sharon Connor, Judy Lee Bowlds, and Sharon Brase were the youngsters enjoying the purely social get-together. Committee member and mother, Mrs. Jean Hannan assisted Mrs. Wilson.

There wasn't one of the little guests at the birthday party of Teresa Hopper last Sunday afternoon who didn't "oh!" and "ah!" and maybe drool a little over the circus cake that was as delicious when it was out as it was pretty to look at. Peppermint sticks held up the "big top" of red construction paper, and animal crackers paraded around while the six candles were placed at the sides. With this was served ice cream and punch. Highlight of the afternoon's activities came when Teresa opened her packages, but running it close competition was the bubble blowing contest which was won by John Wilson and Kenny Clever. Favors were suckers and the pipes with which the children competed in the bubble-blowing contest. These enjoying the fun were Mike Kattorke, Scott Tripplett, Janie Porras, Peter Pappas, Claudia Carlson, and sister Sharon. Mommy had sent Teresa's name in to Sheriff John so he could wish her a "Happy Birthday" on his lunch brigade and wouldn't you list know, on just that day he had to announce the birthdays early so Teresa missed hearing her name mentioned on TV by a little five minutes.

Is there a nicer way of serving a birthday than with one's friends? We doubt it. Dorothy Wainwright, Wilma Brown, and Camilla Holpband went to the Wilton Hotel in Long Beach last Thursday in celebration of Wilma's birthday. Gloria Hixson was unable to attend due to an appointment with the stork the evening before. . . . (We'll tell you all about that as soon as we get the details. All we know now is that it was a very nice lunch and afternoon together.

Heard that "Wink" and Lorraine Winklebauer and children along with Maxine and Neil Hopper and daughters, all of the fourth tract, spent the day at Baldy recently. Reports are that there wasn't too much snow, but the group had a wonderful time anyhow and everyone enjoyed the picnic lunch that was taken along.

Kettler Knolls was well represented at the Cub Scouts of Pack 932-C's annual Blue and Gold dinner last Friday evening. The dinner was pot luck and really had a turn out which filled the auditorium at Torrance Elementary School where it was held. We saw the Schuchman, the Devenishes, Crossmann, Holpbands, Matt Phillips, the Stittsworths, the Lucianis, and the Scirrias to mention just a few.

Taking a long drive and having his birthday dinner in Kenney Grove Park above Ventura was the way that Jimmy Gore noted his birthday last Sunday. The son of Roy and Vi Gore of Falena St. has reached the ripe old age of eight, and though it was a picnic dinner that the family enjoyed, it included a big birthday cake with candies and all the trimmings.

Margaret Beavers, of 2122 Middlebrook Rd., will be the hostess to the Rachel Circle when they hold their March meeting next Tuesday. The members will then make final plans for the bake sale which they will have next Thursday at the Methodist Church on El Prado Ave.

The ringing of the phone at 4:30 a.m. Friday, at the Staff residence, 5714 Palos Verdes Blvd., announced a surprise visit of Toni's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Robison and children Marcia, Rick, and Ralph from Rexburg, Ida. They were lost, so Vic had to go and find them. I wonder who was surprised?

Happy birthday to Lynette Klett, of 5309 Clearste Ave., who celebrated her seventh birthday Saturday afternoon with a party. Among those present were Virginia Nelson, Donna Barry, Donna Rae Walker, Mark Patton, Duane Jones, Bobby Gates, Carl Childs, and Rodney and Charles Whyte.

Cub Pack 960-C celebrated the 44th year of Scouting by having their Blue and Gold Dinner Feb. 28 at Seaside School with eight dens attending. The door prizes were donated by the merchants in this area.

Cubmaster Tom Bardeen, of 4903 Milne Dr., was well-pleased with the turn-out of 200 or more of the Cubs and their parents. Rev. George F. Cain of the South Bay Baptist Church gave the blessing, and also a short speech commending the Cubs on their work. Mr. Dandenberg, a Scout official, was present and also gave a short address.

With Washington's birthday as the theme, the girls of Intermediate Girl Scout Troop No. 936 enjoyed a scavenger hunt and party recently. Working in pairs, the girls scoured the neighborhood for articles not commonly seen and then returned to the home of Mrs. Louise Stewart, Sharon Maddock, and Phyllis Jean Yancey. For favors which also served as place cards, there was a chocolate candy heart with each child's name on it. Billy had a great time, going over and over his many lovely gifts later that evening.
