Carr Students See Park Observatory

Sorry to have missed the Tuesday deadline, but Red Cross and School Bond Election intervened. However, after sitting on the election board until, as Bob Thomas (17020 Della Ave.) said, "when you stand, your dress remains sitting," I found out a few things that may compensate for missing Thursday's column.

First, I came to the conclusion that too many of us who complain about double sessions and lack of schools didn't show up when it came to doing something constructive about it! Whether we were for or against the issue, we should keep in mind that freedom is lost by failing to back up your opinion by your vote!

Another thing I found out is that Thelma O'Dell, 17204 Crenshaw Blvd., has not vanished! She has merely joined the ranks of the employed!

Oh yes! I also found I was clairvoyant! I predicted 120 votes and how many voted? 120!

The Larry Dorseys, 17512 Falda Ave., spent a recent weekend in Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr. Dean's sixth grade from Carr Elementary School visited the Griffith Park Observatory Tuesday. With them were Mrs. Genevieve MacDonald and Mrs. Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hubik (he operates the Meat Department at Manor Market) celebrated their 27th wedding anniversary at the Fish Shanty.

Two nicer people couldn't deserve the other more!

The mothers of Cub Pack 761-C decided to sell chocolate Easter rabbits and eggs to raise funds at their monthly meeting held at the home of Mrs. C. Sewell, 16820 Patronella Ave., Den 6 (ahem!) won the half gallon of ice cream for mother attendance.

Charlene Dyer, 17080 Crenshaw Blvd., is convalescing from chickenpox.

Martha Sherwood, 17204 Ardath Ave., is expected home this weekend from Hawthorne Community Hospital.

The Pack committee of Pack 761-C met to discuss plans for a Cub trip to the aquarium in March.

Present were: C. E. Sewell, R. Norman, J. Kallok, Walt Bronson, William Johnson, E. W. Gallup, Cortez, J. Miller, H. R. Black.

The meeting was held at the home of J. Herman Cortez.

Ann Collins, 17025 Crenshaw Blvd., has really been showing her mother, Mrs. Bertha Landers, the Southland's points of interest.

They've seen the Ina Ray Huton Show and Western Varieties, wandered through Farmer's Market, Knott's Berry Farm, and even visited a cousin in La Canada that Mrs. Landers hadn't seen in 50 years!

The Allison family, 17059 Glenburn Ave., motored to Bakers field last week-end. Gene J. R.'s mother, and his grandmother visited the Kern County Flower Show while J. R. took their three sons to the stock car races.

One of life's awkward moments almost ruined my son, Eric, this week!

He had his teacher, Mrs. Duke, over for luncheon and his two-year-old sister used the cocktail icers as a finger bowl. His look of consternation changed to one of relief when tactful Mrs. Duke told about her nephew's escapades!

This did not discourage his urge to act as host so he held pre-school luncheon for George Beckham, Ronnie Gastelum and Michael Towell.

Vivacious Judy Towell, 17512 Ermanita Ave., received a lion's share of birthday wishes and gifts at her pretty pink and white fifth birthday party.

Each guest was delighted to find their lunch wrapped as a big, pink and beribboned gift. Each had guests dressed like dolls in pretty skirts and festive pink party hats for the girls and light green hats for the boys.

After opening the gifts which included everything from a two-wheeled bike to lovely dresses and little girl's essentials, the guests hurried outdoors for a gift hunt of their own.

Present were Susie Krumwiede, Louise Gastelum, Kathy Spence, Suzanne Baker, Karen Loy, Christine Denny, Vicki West, Tina Cortez, Romie Henderson, Robbie Fannon, Jimmy Bramlett, Duke Cortez, Rodger Weatherbee, and Bruce Baker.

Larry Bronson, 49-year-old brother of Walt Bronson, 17229 Atkinson Ave., was killed in a traffic accident at March Field, Wash.

Present were the James Spences, Vernon Cruzes, Marcella

Marcella Fannon, 17020 Crenshaw Ave., was feted at an Au Revoir Party given by Mr. and Mrs. Reese Holbrook and the J. H. Cortezes.

The theme was Mardi Gras and colored discs covered the Serpentine and balloons were festooned across the room. The table was set with a confetti and serpentine covered white cloth. Two crystal punchbowls centered the table.

Everyone left weak from the hilarious laughter following those CRAAZZZY games!

Present were the James Spences, Vernon Cruzes, Marcella

Fannon and Marvin Ross, the Arthur Mosses, Wendell Towells, Ralph Gastelum, Kenneth Westa. Neighbors presented her with a turquoise cotton dress and a frothy can-can petticoat.

Sorry to have missed Dorothy Dallas and the fine Father Hobby Show at North Torrance Elementary PTA Wednesday night.

Dorothy, who sings with the Inglewood Symphony Orchestra, auditioned for Los Angeles Civic Light Opera this week.

The Scout Mothers of Troop 761-C meet tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Eastcott, 3780 W. 176th St., at 8 p.m.

Will the lady who called me about the twins (one named Anthony) please forgive me for losing the story and call me again? THIS TWIN BUSINESS IS AN EPIDEMIC!
