

Notes on Narbonne

Distaff Side Takes Over NHS for Week

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL
From all reports, Girls Week last week was a tremendous success! Eleanor Dreger, A-12, temporarily routed Mr. Barnett from his office. Other girls who temporarily took over administrative offices were Gloria McCann who replaced Miss Parks as girls vice-principal; and Joy Callaway who succeeded Mrs. Berger as counselor.

Tuesday, which was visitation day, saw many girls visiting various industrial plants, junior colleges, hospitals, schools, etc. The girls who participated in the visitation program were: Jerlene Roring, Shirley McCann, Eve Petrasovich, Alice Carpen, Laura Talbert, Judy Peterson, Jean Wetzel, Flora Hammetman, Adrienne Sidwell, Dolores Cloninger, Jeanette Pearson, Jo Ann Spangler, Karen Pedersen, Jana Phifer, Darlene Cummings, Rosa Duarte, Mary Embres, Annabel Glasen, Louise Jones, Marilyn Brannan, Eileen Burrell, Geraldine Wagers, Shirley Endo, Leona Thompson, Beverly Agnew, Ruth Armes, Kay Francis, Pat Gilbert, Verna Bates, Teresa Valle, Nadine Madrid, Dolores Knuutila, Shirley Carlson, Jeanne Spangler, Paul Dixon, and Gail Travers.

Watch for your Green and Gold today. Six pages of the latest news, sports, gossip, jokes, etc. are featured.

The two one-act plays, which were scheduled for today have been postponed until next Thursday. The two plays, which should be dillies, are "I Men Played Cards As Women Do," and "Good Night Caroline." The Six of Narbonne's fine music students auditioned for the PTA scholarship given at the PTA Health Center auditorium last week. Those who represented Narbonne under Miss Sturdy's coaching were David Cole, Elaine Baxley, Shirley Washburn, Stella Mae Emery, Gloria Johnson, and Ruth Thorneycroft.

Five members of the Senior Scholarship and its sponsor, Miss McCoy, attended a meeting of District 11 at Los Angeles High yesterday for the election of officers of the district. Those who attended the interesting meeting were Jerry Coulter, Dwayne Trimble, Roberta Wilson, Dennis Hudson, and Julia Delgado.

Wanted: More members for the Auxiliary Fire Department, according to Mr. I. D. Aldrich, club sponsor. Due to the half-day sessions, a whole new club is needed. Also six or eight more senior high students are needed. Mr. McGee, captain, presides over the meetings, which are held every Monday during the first ten minutes of noon right after fifth period in the Little Theater.

Boy, is that tennis team looking sharp! Every day the team draws spectators at seventh period practice time.

The team, under the expert eye of Coach Leo Probert, is composed mostly of freshmen who are making remarkable progress for their first year.
