GRAND OPENING STARTS TODAY... Oscar Maples, Inc., new Torrance Ford Agency, will celebrate a grand opening starting today and continuing through Sunday, April 4. Climax of the celebration will be the awarding of prizes at the show-rooms Sunday evening at 8. The agency is located at 1420 Cabrillo Ave.

Baby Parade, Egg Hunt Planned For Easter by Recreation Dept.

Two special events to climax Easter Week—an egg hunt and a baby parade—will be sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department April 17 and 18.

On Saturday, April 17, an Easter Egg Hunt will be held for boys and girls in the fourth grade or below at a time and place to be announced later.

On Easter Sunday, April 18, babies from one to 24 months of age will vie for the titles of King and Queen of Spring in a parade at El Prado Park, and babies from one to 23 months will be judged for the positions of King and Queen of Baby Week, April 31 to May 7.

TAC Meeting Stated
A special meeting of the Torrance Adult Club will be held today at 10 a.m. at the Adult Center to work out details of the programs. The Adult Club may take over one or both of the events and sponsor them each year.

Anyone who would like to help in preparations for the events is asked to contact the Recreation Department.

Parents can register their children for the Easter Baby Parade at the Torrance Recreation

20-30 Club Plans Dinner

Men between the ages of 20 and 35 have been invited to a dinner meeting of the newly-formed 20-30 Club, to be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Alan Richard Hall.

The Westchester 20-30 Club is helping local members in an attempt to recharter the Torrance 20-30. The last meeting was held at the home of Larry Middleton, 3645 W. 182nd St., to discuss plans for a drive for members.

To Parade at Park
Parents and children will parade at El Prado Park on Easter Sunday afternoon and members of the Adult Club will judge the babies in two general divisions—the Baby Division (23 months and younger) and the Tiny Tykes Division (ages two to four).

The King and Queen of Baby Week will be chosen from the Baby Division and judges will also select the youngest, the fattest, the baby with the most outstanding red hair, the most outstanding blue eyes, the longest eyelashes, the most outstanding dark eyes, the most outstanding tow head, and the most outstanding twins. In the Tiny Tyke Division, the following classification of children will be chosen: For boys—most debonaire, brightest, flashiest Easter tie, and "Man of Distinction." For girls—daintiest, prettiest Easter bonnet, and most ruffles.

Boys and girls—best home made costume, most attractively tailored costume, most attractively matched costume and most attractive twins. The King and Queen of Spring also will be selected from the Tiny Tykes division.

Walteria Scouts Hold Honor Court

Receiving Tenderfoot awards were Rodney White, Johnny Corberly, Andy Krumm, and Edward Bayak.
