North Torrance Pair in Theater Finals

BY ADALINE CORTEZ
 ME 4-8876
 Patsene Kelly, 17220 Della Ave., and Mary Louise Payne, 2060 W. 160th St., daughters of the Ted Kellys and Robert Paynes respectively, took part in the American Legion Day program at the Orange Show in San Bernardino. They did a military dance and a chain galing number in very clever costume. Besides this, the girls won second place at an amateur contest sponsored by the Exchange Club of Long Beach at the Lakewood Theater. They return today for the finals.

 It's ironic that audiences all over the Los Angeles area have acclaimed these girls and showed them with honors, yet they remain undiscovered in North Torrance! Wake up, Program Planners!

 Virginia Morgan, Glenburn Ave., attended the concert held by school orchestras and bands in Torrance Friday night. Daughter Donna Lee played with the Carr Elementary Orchestra.

 With an air of cheerful bravado, Lynn and Norman Hale, 18937 Elgar Ave., threw a party for the crowd that has been following the Country Club trail in the Southern California Golf Association Tournament with them.

Though they lost by only 3 points to Annandale (whom they beat twice) the group decided to let the "dead past bury its dead"—and surrendered to the gay spring atmosphere created by Lynn with flowers and table arrangements—in pastels.

Three children spent three days in Albuquerque, N. M., visiting her sister.
 The Reese Holbrooks attended a birthday celebration in Santa Monica this weekend at which 30 adults and about 35 children were present. It turned out to be a reunion of old school chums of Reese.

The Gospel Gossipers, a group of neighbors interested in gathering to discuss the Bible, met at the home of Mrs. Glen Runstead last week. Present were Mrs. Westmoreland, Mrs. Herring, Mrs. Haynes, Mrs. Bursch, Mrs. Cambridge.
 Roger and Cheryl Beedon saw their first snow when parents, Jan and Clint, 3137 West 175th St., took them tobogganing at Mt. Waterman, beyond Mt. Wilson.

Mike Orozco, 16820 Wilkie Ave., explained for Cocoa Beach, Fla., last week on business.
 Five lucky ladies are making plans to attend the PTA State Convention in San Francisco. They are Mrs. Philo Mellor, El Nido; Mrs. Ralph Evestone, Cranshaw; Mrs. Kenneth McVas, Perry; Mrs. Francis Stoeckle, North Torrance; Mrs. William Wright, Torrance Council.

Mrs. Vera Wright, 18328 Roslin Ave., chairman of the Cancer Drive in North Torrance, announces Father and Son Night, TONIGHT, April 7.
 Anyone wishing to give a card party or other money raising event may contact Mrs. Wright at FR 2-2288.

Kent Van De Vort, newly-born son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Van De Vort, 2004 W. 176th St., is expected to return home from Children's Hospital this week.
 Peggy and Bill Sale, 17002 Ainsworth Ave., brought home 16 friends for a ham and eggs breakfast after the North American dance at the Hollywood Riviera Saturday night.

Dennis Cambridge, 18287 Roslin Ave., celebrated his fourth birthday with Richard Burch, Susan Westmoreland, Johnnie Herring, Linda Hynes, Jo Ann Runstead, Stanley White, Bobbie White and Mark Cambridge.
 Dennis is the grandson of the Glenn Runsteads who live at 18236 Roslin Ave.

Ann West, 17807 Glenburn Ave., has taken her turn at a Stanley party. Present were Pat Stamm, Ruth Towell, Connie Gastelum, Mary Krumwiede, Mildred Pansy, Mabel Bierce, Jackie Ogston, Marie Henslee, Rachel Sepulveda, Dorothy Woods, Jan Besse, and Maggie Minck.
 Art Watson, 17511 Glenburn Ave., has undergone surgery at Torrance Memorial Hospital.

The Al Pesolas, 17680 Faysmith Avp., visited in Vista, California, with friends who have a ranch in the avocado orchards.
 Mrs. A. Christianson, who has been visiting with them, made the trip with them prior to her return to Vancouver, Wash.

The J. R. Ferritolas, 2630 W. 176th St., are hosts to his father from Pottsville, Penn., who is touring California and Arizona looking for a place to settle down.
 Twenty-six children marched and blew horns to announce to the world that Sherry and Karen Hanson, 2019 W. 176th St., were having a Happy Birthday.
 Later, clowns and a real merry go round arrived to thrill the little guests.
