Choir To Sing Sacred Cantata

The choir of the First Christian Church will present the sacred cantata "The Seven Last Words of Christ," tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the first program given by the group at the church's new location—2930 El Dorado.

A candlelight communion service will precede the presentation. Director of the choir is C. W. Bartholomew and soloists are Helen Lenz and Lorita Lincoln, sopranos; Dean Lougee, Margaret Foster and Fred Lincoln, tenors; Milton Huber, Len Brunum and Howard Foster, basses. Accompanists will be Mrs. Eleanor Hanes at the Hammond organ and Mrs. Ruth Skillman at the piano.

Hope Brethren Church To Hold Service Tonight

Members and friends of Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church are invited to participate in a Candlelight Communion Service tonight at 7:30 o'clock, according to the pastor, the Rev. Homer H. Miller.

Members of the adult choir will sing, and the children's choir consisting of a group of boys and girls who will be confirmed on Easter Sunday morning will also sing a special number, the Rev. Miller reported.

The Communion Meditation will be brought by the pastor and will be based on the question of the disciples on the night of the betrayal when they asked "Lord is it I?"

Sunday morning Earl Burkey, Sunday school superintendent, will open the church school at 9:30 a.m. The Easter Morning Worship Service will begin at 10:45.

A class of boys and girls who have been taking a course of catechetical instruction for a number of weeks will be confirmed and received into church fellowship together with a number of others who will be received by letter of transfer from other churches or on their confession of faith. The total number expected to join on Easter is expected to be more than 20. Parents who wish to have their children baptized should consult the pastor immediately in order that appropriate arrangements can be made. The pastor will speak on the subject: "An East-

Church Plans Two Services For Easter

Identical Easter services will be held at 8:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday morning at the South Bay Baptist Church, according to the Rev. George F. Cain, pastor.

The Rev. Cain will speak on the topic "Why Mary Was Weeping," at both services and the choir will sing "Open the Gates of the Temple," arranged by Joseph Fletcher.

At the 7:30 o'clock evening service, the pastor will speak on "A Divine Visitation," and the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Erling Fredrickson, will sing a cantata entitled "The Easter Message."

Sunday school for all age groups will meet at 9:45 a.m. and bus transportation for children residing in the surrounding areas may be obtained by calling the parsonage, FR 5-5469. Christian Endeavor groups will meet at 6:30 p.m.

A reorganization and election of officers are on the agenda for the Tuesday night meeting of the Women's Missionary Society, to be held at 7:30 o'clock.

Easter Services To Christen New Lutheran Church

A new church will be opened in Torrance on Easter Sunday morning when the congregation of the First Lutheran Church will gather for the first services in the new church building at Carson St. and Flower Ave.

Early service will be held at 8 a.m. with the Rev. Ralph Herman delivering the sermon. The second service will be held at 9:30 a.m. and the last at 10:45 a.m.

The Rev. Paul Wepske, pastor, will speak at the two later services.

Sunday School, for the nursery and beginners classes only, will be conducted at 9:30 and 10:45 a.m.

Today, Maundy Thursday communion services will be held in the old location, Acacia and Sonoma Aves., at 7:30 a.m. and Good Friday services will be held at 7:30 a.m., also in the old church.

St. Andrew's Easter Week Services Told

A Holy Communion service at 8 o'clock tonight will open Easter Week services at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Ingracia Ave., according to the Rev. Arthur E. Bello, rector.

On Good Friday evening, tomorrow night, the Girls Choir will sing at the evening prayer service at 8 o'clock "The Seven Last Words," will be the sermon subject.

Members of the nursery and primary departments of the Sunday School will search for ten dozen Easter eggs that will be scattered about at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Baptism services will be held for approximately 20 youngsters, babies and adults at 4 p.m. Saturday.

Three Holy Communion services will be held on Easter Sunday at 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m., and the Rev. Bello will speak on "The Victory of Defeat," a sermon telling the nature of the Christian Faith.

BLACK TIRES

Alcon (SF)—Use of carbon black in tires started when one manufacturer used it to distinguish his tires from competitors, and also learned that it served to toughen the rubber for greater use.

WATER SURFACE

Three-fourths of the earth's surface is water.

ER JOURNEY. Both adult and children's choirs will sing at this service.

Walteria Club To Sponsor Easter Sunrise Services

The Walteria Businessmen's Club, in cooperation with three churches, will sponsor Easter Sunrise Services starting Sunday morning at 5:20 o'clock at Walteria Park.

The Assembly of God, First Baptist and Community Methodist churches, and their pastors, the Revs. A. E. Rainwater, and Gene Gehres, will combine to present the "Easter services." Program chairman is J. A. Beasley.

The program will be opened with a trumpet fanfare by Jerry Woods and Kendall Baker Jr. Following two hymns by the congregation, "The Old Rugged Cross" and "He Lives," directed by Norman Goodrich, with Mrs. Oranel DeFrance as accompanist—the Rev. Gehres will give a reading from scripture.

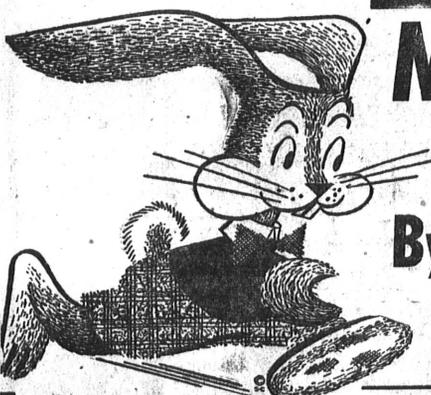

A trio composed of Sarah and Sharon Buchanan and Mrs. DeFrance will present "The Unveiled Christ," and following this, a prayer will be delivered by the Rev. Dudy.

The Rev. Rainwater's Easter message will precede the solo "The Christ of the Cross," by Mrs. Jerry Richards, with Goodrich as accompanist.

The Rev. Gehres will close the services with a benediction.
