Notes on Narbonne

Nine Weeks To Go Until Summer Rest

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL
DA 6-8703

Well, after celebrating a pretty swell Easter vacation, Narbonne's Gauchos are back at the ole school grind once again. Only nine more weeks before school's out for the semester.

Donna Beane, along with her folks, reports that she had a great time at Placerville, Calif., last week.

Frank Zuray and Anita Shehen were two of a few Gauchos present at the Palladium during Easter vacation. They listened to the swell music of Jerry Gray.

Don't forget Gauchos, to set those clocks ahead one hour next Sunday. Maybe you'd better go to bed one hour earlier than usual so that you won't lose that one hour.

A really great time was had by all those attending the Senior GAA Playday, "Out Of This World" last Tuesday. The schools who attended were Venice, Polytechnic, Manual Arts, Gardena, and a dance group from Bell Gardens. All the girls agreed that the games, skits, and food were all very good.

Many swell plans are being made for Narbonne's Open House next Wednesday evening. Be sure and invite the folks. The Guilders are putting on a hobby show that night too. If you are interested in entering your hobby, see Bill Brochlesby, Mary Jean Harker, Flora Hammetman or any Guildler.

Today marks Baseball Tag Day. Our Gaucho moundsmen will encounter Westchester at Peck Park today. Let's wish the boys loads of luck.

The results of the horrible Iowa tests have finally arrived. Conferences of the tests with individual students have been started yesterday in Mrs. Berger's office.

Narbonne's annual Spelling Bee starts today. The finalists will be in the spelling bee against the parents on Open House.

Our Gaucho eidermen have their last track meet against Jordan here, Friday. Come on Gauchos, let's show the Bulldogs our sportsmanship and spirit.

Other one of those super-duper Sports Nights will be on hand tomorrow night at 6:30 and lasts until 10:30. It promises to be the success that it has been the last few times.

The A-9 class had its Recognition Day yesterday in the auditorium.

Committees are now being formed for the Junior-Senior Prom on May 28.

Great plans for the Senior Picnic on May 14 are now being made.

"Flying High," a Lion Club-sponsored show filled with local talent, was shown last Thursday and Friday nights in the Narbonne auditorium. Proceeds from the show are to go for glasses for needy children.

Snow Valley was the destination of a group of Gauchos from the Western Avenue Baptist Church last Saturday afternoon. The kids reported that they all had a great time.

Jackie (Smith) Patrick had a little baby boy a couple of weeks ago. Jackie's sister, Carolyn Deryder, had a little girl, Shirley Ann, just a few days before Jimmy Patrick arrived.

Donna Beane reports that she had a swell time with her folks at Placerville, Calif.
